The Philosophy Of The Count De Gobineau:

The Philosophy of the Count de Gobineau G. M. Spring, 1995-10-01 The Literary Works of Count de Gobineau Arnold Horrex Rowbotham, 1929 The Prophets of Doom Neema Parvini, 2023-07-27 Linear and progressive views of history have dominated the popular imagination for the past seventy years in a worldview wedded to the inexorable rise of globalisation and GDP growth at any cost However the end of the Cold War failed to produce the end of history as hoped a fact brought home to many by Russia's invasion of Ukraine in 2022 Material wealth and Progress in the name of social justice have not made people happier or more united but quite the opposite Anxiety depression fearfulness sadness loneliness and anger have all massively increased since 1970 with the male suicide rate at an all time high Western society seems to be divided against itself across every line conceivable left versus right women versus men non whites versus whites globalists versus populists the elites versus the people people who think that men can be women and vice versa versus those who insist that they cannot and so on Seventy three percent of Americans believe their country is on the wrong track with similar views reflected in Britain and across Europe The Prophets of Doom explores eleven thinkers who not only dared to contradict the dominant linear and progressive view of history but also predicted many of the political and social maladies through which we are living Macmillan's Magazine ,1867 Consolationism and Comparative African Philosophy Ada Agada, 2021-11-18 In a major challenge to African philosophy this book demonstrates the importance of the universalisation question for every committed African philosopher Rooted in Africa's colonial legacy the universalisation question challenges the African thinker to show how authentically African philosophical concepts and phenomena can be universally applicable in a globalising world In this highly original book the author inserts the philosophy of consolationism into African philosophical discourse constructing a unique philosophical system that is at once African and universally relevant The book engages major African and Western philosophers of diverse ideological leanings in a compelling dialogue that announces the future of world philosophy as one of interculturality in which a common philosophical horizon is forged out of the cultural diversities of the world for the edification of humanity in a continually changing world This book will be an important read for researchers in the fields of African Studies intercultural philosophy philosophy of mind and existentialism Colonialism Melvin E. Page, 2003-09-16 The most exhaustive reference work available on this critical subject in world history focusing on the politics economy culture and society of both colonizers and colonized The history of the last 500 years is the history of imperialism writes editor Melvin Page In the Americas as a result of imperialist conquest disease famine and war nearly wiped out a population estimated in the tens of millions Africa was devastated by the slave trade an integral part of imperialism from the 1400s to the 1800s In Asia even though native populations survived native political institutions were destroyed Imperialism also forged the two most important ideologies of the last five centuries racialism and modern nationalism In more than 600 essays presented in this three volume encyclopedia Page and other leading scholars historians political scientists economists and sociologists analyze the origins of imperialism the many forms it took and its impact worldwide They also explore imperialism s bitter legacy the gross inequities of global wealth and power that divide the former conquerors primarily Europe the United States and Japan from the people they conquered The New Statesman ,1915 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1865 The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1886 Counseling Pregnancy, Politics, and Biomedicine Patricia Elyse Terrell,2013-04-15
