The Political Dimension of Structural Adjustment Programmes in Sub-Saharan Africa Akilagpa Sawyerr, 1990 Politics and Economics of Africa Frank H. Columbus, 2001 Politics Economics of Africa Volume 1 Africa's Development in the Twenty-first Century Kwadwo Konadu-Agyemang, Martin Kwamina Panford, 2006 Having been under colonial rule for the first half of the century by 1965 all but a handful of African countries had regained their independence and were poised to take off into an era of development However Africa now suffers from the most acute form of underdevelopment anywhere in the world Bringing together a broad selection of case studies covering a wide range of key issues this volume provides a multidisciplinary exploration of Africa's development opportunities and challenges into the twenty first century Historical Dictionary of International Organizations in Sub-Saharan Africa Terry M. Mays, Mark W. Delancey, 2002-05-07 The aim of this book is to provide readers with a tool to trace the changes in the development and progression of African international organizations This volume applies a dictionary format and reviews African international organizations as well as selected global and regional bodies with extensive African membership Entries on prominent Africans who have served with sub regional continental and global international organizations as well as including reviews of events and terminology associated with the topic are highlighted The authors provide an insightful introduction to the subject an up to date chronology a comprehensive acronym list that includes English and French names for the organizations with Anglophone and Francophone members and an extensive bibliography This volume serves the needs of students scholars business persons diplomats and others with an interest in African international organizations Structural Adjustment in Sub-Saharan Africa Laetitia van Drunen, 1994 Contains summaries of major conference papers and discussions Issues in the Contemporary Politics of Sub-Saharan Africa G. Harrison, 2002-06-19 Graham Harrison investigates contemporary African politics by privileging the dynamics of political struggle and resistance Through the analysis of peasant politics debt and structural adjustment democratization and identity politics the author shows the importance of resistance and agency Detailed studies of Mozambique Nigeria and Burkina Faso demonstrate how political organization and resistance have been closely ingrained in particular post colonial trajectories An original and refreshing approach to the study of African politics this will be a useful textbook for upper level undergraduates and postgraduate students Cultural Sociology of the Middle East, Asia, and Africa Andrea L. Stanton, 2012 In our age of globalization and multiculturalism it has never been more important to understand and appreciate all cultures across the world The four volumes take a step forward in this endeavour by presenting concise information on those regions least well known to students across Europe the Middle East Asia and Africa The volumes convey what daily life is like for people in these selected regions Entries will aid readers in understanding the importance of cultural sociology to appreciate the effects of cultural forces around the world and to learn the history of countries and cultures within these important regions Key Features Topics are explored within historical context in three broad historical periods prehistory to 1250 1250 to 1920 and 1920 to the present One volume each is devoted to the regions of the Middle East and Africa and then one volume to East and Southeast Asia and a final volume to West Central and South Asia The volumes include extensive use of photographs and maps to explain cultural and geographic content Each volume has its own volume editor with expertise in that particular region Key Themes Arts Culture and Science People Society and Dynasties Religion and Law Family and Daily Life Conflicts and Wars Politics and Government Health and Education Economy Trade and Industry National Geography and History

Structural Adjustment and Socio-economic Change in Sub-Saharan Africa Peter Gibbon,Adebayo O. Olukoshi,1996 This report summarises the results of work at the Nordiska Afrikainstitutet Nordic Africa Institute NAI on the impact of structural adjustment implementation on the economies states and societies of sub Saharan Africa It consists of two essays and an appendix listing research projects which have been are being carried out under the auspices of NAI The first essay raises a series of conceptual and methodological questions in the context of a presentation of some of the main empirical results obtained from extended field work carried out during the course of 1992 and 1993 in Kenya Tanzania and Zimbabwe The second essay presents the three main themes private trading networks and structures the changing political economy of land and popular forms of social provisioning that constitute the core of the second phase of NAI s structural adjustment research and in so doing provides a review of aspects of the adjustment literature This report is therefore an attempt both at stock taking and agenda building as part of a wider quest for deepening our understanding of the structures and processes of socio economic change associated with the crisis and adjustment years in contemporary Africa

Governing Africa's Forests in a Globalized World Laura Anne German,Alain Karsenty,Anne Marie Tiani,2009-12-01 Many countries around the world are engaged in decentralization processes and most African countries face serious problems with forest governance from benefits sharing to illegality and sustainable forest management This book summarizes experiences to date on the extent and nature of decentralization and its outcomes most of which suggest an underperformance of governance reforms and explores the viability of different governance instruments in the context of weak governance and expanding commercial pressures over forests Findings are grouped into two thematic areas decentralization livelihoods and sustainable forest management and international trade finance and forest sector governance reforms The authors examine diverse forces shaping the forest sector including the theory and practice of decentralization usurpation of authority corruption and illegality inequitable patterns of benefits capture and expansion of international trade in timber and carbon credits and discuss related outcomes on livelihoods forest condition and equity The book builds on earlier volumes exploring different dimensions of decentralization and perspectives from other world regions and distills dimensions of forest governance that are both unique to Africa and representative of broader global patterns The authors ground their analysis in relevant theory while drawing out implications of their findings for policy and practice

Historical Dictionary of International Organizations in Africa and the Middle East Terry M. Mays,2015-06-18 The Historical Dictionary of International Organizations in Africa and the Middle East focuses on international organizations in Africa And the Middle East This makes sense for political cultural and geographical reasons North African countries and many located in the Sahel region are members of not only African but also Middle Eastern international organizations due to their cultural and religious heritage as well as geographic location between Sub Saharan Africa and the Middle East A limited number of global organizations are also included in this book when they have major programs focusing on Africa and or the Middle East This volume emphasizes intergovernmental organizations but many non governmental organizations are also included This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities thematic topics and major international issues affecting the region This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this subject
