The International Arms Trade Rachel Stohl, Suzette Grillo, 2013-04-29 The multi billion dollar business of the international conventional arms trade involves virtually every country in the world Around the globe people's lives are being irrevocably changed by the effects of guns tanks and missiles These weapons have the potential to cause a deadly and current threat one responsible for hundreds of thousands of deaths a year This succinct and accessible new book explores the complexities and realities of the global conventional weapons trade The first book on the subject in nearly a decade The International Arms Trade provides an engaging introduction to the trade the effects and the consequences of these weapons The authors trace the history of the arms trade and examine how it has evolved since the end of the Cold War In particular they assess the role of the largest arms exporters and importers the business of selling conventional arms around the world and shed new light on the illicit arms trade and the shadowy dealers who profit from their deadly commerce The book also looks closely at the devastating effect the business can have on countries societies and individuals and concludes with an evaluation of the various existing control strategies and the potential for future control opportunities The International Arms Trade will be invaluable for students and scholars of international relations and security studies and for policymakers and anyone interested in understanding more about the conventional arms trade

The Barcelona Process George Joffe, Alvaro Vasconcelos, 2014-04-08 The Euro Mediterranean Partnership the Barcelona Process aims to create integration in the Mediterranean Basin so as to encourage economic development along the Southern rim This volume takes a critical look at the problems faced by the Process and the likelihood of its success

The CSCE Security Regime Formation K. Hong, 1997-04-11 An analysis of the CSCE OSCE process from the perspective of security regime formation and an evaluation of its contribution to European security This book systematically examines the whole CSCE OSCE process from a non European perspective bearing in mind the transferability of the OSCE to other regions This book displays innovative research on security regimes by presenting an empirical case study of the CSCE OSCE

Crises In The Balkans Constantine P Danopoulos, 2019-03-07 Written from the perspectives of regional and international participants this book explores the causes and consequences of chronic conflicts in the Balkans Assessing the likelihood of a region wide conflagration the contributors examine the ongoing carnage in Bosnia the looming crisis over Kosovo the dispute between Greece and Macedonia over t

Cascade of Arms Andrew J. Pierre, 1997-11-01 With the post cold war emphasis on the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction the neglected dimension has been the spread of advanced conventional arms Yet these are the arms most likely to be used in conflict They present the greatest diversion from economic and social development and are the centerpiece of regional security balances This book examines the policies and practices of the major arms supplying nations looks at the impact of weapons purchases on the principal recipient regions and the possibilities for regional arms control and dissects the economics of arms exports for the producer nations in both the developing and industrialized worlds The book thoroughly discusses the opportunities for and obstacles to achieving multilateral restraint on arms In addition to the editor contributors are Ian Anthony Stockholm International Peace Research Institute Nicole Ball Overseas Development Council Julian Cooper University of Birmingham Lawrence Freedman and Martin Navias King s College London Rodney Jones Policy Architects International Ethan Kapstein University of Minnesota Michael Klare Five College Program in Peace and World Security Studies Andrew Mack Australian National University Abdel Monem Said Aly Center for Political and Strategic Studies Cairo Janne Nolan Brookings Institution Andrew Ross Naval War College Gerald Segal International Institute for Strategic Studies and Gerald Steinberg Bar Ilan University Israel Copublished with the World Peace Foundation

The New Pacific Community in the 1990s Young Jeh Kim, 2016-09-16 With the end of the Cold War and the subsequent new regional alignments American foreign policy and influence in the Asia Pacific region face a major turning point In this book ten North American specialists from various disciplines reconceptualize the forces shaping the New Pacific Community international politics as a by product of peaceful cooperation the changing role of the military the political economy as a determinant of human rights environmental and demographic issues and culture as an evolutionary and dynamic phenomenon in the lives of new immigrants as they make their way in American society

The International Politics of Russia and the Successor States Mark Webber, 1996 This textbook examines the external relations of the fifteen new states which emerged from the ashes of the Soviet Union in 1991 Mark Webber examines the consequences of the Soviet collapse and the emergence of a new system of international relations embracing Russia and the other former Soviet republics The author explores both relations between the new states themselves and between these states and the wider world He pinpoints the daunting challenges facing the new states the invention of foreign policy orientations the management of the Red Army s material legacy including nuclear weapons the resolution of regional conflicts and the need for economic revival Two key themes emerge the reassertion of national identities and the special position of Russia which has assumed to some extent the rights and the obligations of the Soviet Union on the world stage whilst having to tackle the chaos of local wars and internal economic collapse

Global Transformations David Held, 1999 In this book the authors set forth a new model of globalization that lays claims to supersede existing models and then use this model to assess the way the processes of globalization have operated in different historic periods in respect to political organization military globalization trade finance corporate productivity migration culture and the environment Each of these topics is covered in a chapter which contrasts the contemporary nature of globalization with that of earlier epochs In mapping the shape and political consequences of globalization the authors concentrate on six states in advanced capitalist societies SIACS the United States the United Kingdom Sweden France Germany and Japan For comparative purposes other states particularly those with developing economies are referred to and discussed where relevant The book concludes by systematically describing and assessing contemporary globalization and appraising the implications of globalization for the sovereignty and autonomy of SIACS It also confronts directly the political fatalism that surrounds much discussion of globalization with a normative agenda that elaborates the possibilities for democratizing and civilizing the unfolding global transformation

The Transformation of Security in the Asia/Pacific Region Desmond Ball,2013-10-14 The security architecture of the Asia Pacific region is in a profound transformation Such changes are not without problems which are discussed here China's Relations with Arabia and the Gulf 1949-1999 Mohamed Mousa Mohamed Ali Bin Huwaidin,2003-09-02 This book provides a detailed analysis of China s foreign policy towards the Gulf and Arabian peninsula region from the establishment of the People s Republic of China in 1949 to the end of the 20th century Based on extensive original research it looks at the relations between China and each of the countries of the region over the entire period It demonstrates that two key factors have shaped China s foreign policy with the region China s relations with the United States and the Soviet Union and China s drive to increase its economic ties with the countries of the region especially after becoming a net importer of oil in the early 1990s The Weapons State David Mutimer,2000 The proliferation of all kinds of weapons is a focal point for international security This work shows how both the language used to talk about weapons proliferation and the practices adopted to respond to it serve to define the problem in ways that promote policy responses doomed to failure

Conventional Arms Transfer United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs,1995 Sea-Dumped Chemical Weapons: Aspects, Problems and Solutions A.V. Kaffka,2013-03-09 This volume summarises the materials presented at the NATO Advanced Research Workshop on Sea Dumped Chemical Munitions held in Kaliningrad Moscow Region Russia in January 1995 The conference was sponsored by the NATO Division of Scientific and Environmental Affairs in the framework of its outreach programme to develop co operation between NATO member countries and the Cooperation Partner countries in the area of disarmament technologies The problem of the ecological threat posed by chemical weapons CW dumped in the seas after the Second World War deserves considerable international attention the amount of these weapons many of them having been captured from the German Army is assessed at more than three times as much as the total chemical arsenals reported by the United States and Russia They were disposed of in the shallow depths of North European seas areas of active fishing in close proximity to densely populated coastlines with no consideration of the long term consequences The highly toxic material have time and again showed up for instance when retrieved occasionally in the fishing nets attracting local media coverage only Nevertheless this issue has not yet been given adequate and comprehensive scientific analysis the sea disposed munitions are not covered by either the Chemical Weapons Convention or other arms control treaties In fact the problem has been neglected for a long time on the international level Only recently were official data made available by the countries which admitted conducting dumping operations The Korean Conundrum Ted Galen Carpenter,Doug Bandow,2025-09-23 The US seems to be heading directly toward a confrontation with North Korea as Koreans in the south and nations around the world anxiously witness mounting tension Carpenter and Bandow take a look at the twin crises now afflicting US policy in East Asia the reemergence of North Korea s nuclear weapons program and the growing anti American sentiment in South Korea They question whether Washington s East Asia security strategy makes sense with the looming prospect of US troops stationed in South Korea becoming nuclear hostages Carpenter and Bandow put forth the most provocative solution yet to this gnarled and dangerous situation
