Sisters Through The Seasons:

The Sister Season Jennifer Scott, 2013-11-05 Sometimes coming home for the holidays isn't as easy as it seems. It's December 21 and the Yancey sisters have been called home. When the girls were young, holidays at their family farm meant a tinsel-garnished tree, the scent of simmering food, and laughter ringing through the house. But as the years unfolded, family bonds fractured and the three sisters scattered and settled into separate lives. Until now. The Yancey sisters are coming to spend the holidays with their mother. They're also coming to bury their father. Claire, the youngest, a free spirit who journeyed to California, returns first. Then comes Julia, the eldest, a college professor with a teenage son of her own. And finally, there's Maya, the middle child who works so hard to be the perfect mother and wife. During the sisters' week together, old conflicts surface, new secrets emerge, and the limits and definitions of family are tested. And as the longest night of the year slips by and brightening days beckon, the sisters will have to answer one question: When you're a sister, aren't you a sister forever?

around the city that she'd dreamed of visiting her entire life. Then, due to her companion having a love interest in the city, Delores is forced to veer out on her own. Consequently, she encounters an unlikely suitor.

4 EFFIE AND EUNICE The Lamm Sisters, Effie and Eunice, are whimsical and spry 90 and 95 year old spinsters. They've lived a joyous life together in the same house for nearly seventy years. Between them, Effie and Eunice have a storehouse of memories from the past and prefer slow going evenings reflecting on days gone by rather than getting caught up in life during the present time in Indianola, Mississippi.

5 I DO AGAIN Theresa Owens, 62, a widow for twelve years, calls her three grown daughters, all of varying lifestyles and personalities, together to announce her recent engagement. Though Theresa's Daughters don't think alike, they all agree that no man can replace their father. But it's only Stephanie, the take charge police sergeant, who insists the marriage between their mother, a cultured retired school teacher who's recently moved into a Milwaukee lake front condo, and her fiancé, a grungy auto mechanic, should not take place. In her opinion, he and his family don't measure up to their mother's standards.

6 CLOSED Mable Tucker, 80, is closing her prosperous Canal Street restaurant in New Orleans. And retiring after forty five years at the same location. Regular patrons packed the restaurant and spilled out into the garden area regaling in the folly. Many rekindled decades of memories while enjoying one last meal at Mama Mable's. A first time visitor, Gordy, in town on business gets to Mable's just in time to experience what his best friend, who's Mable's nephew, has boasted about for years. Gordy discovered that Mable did cook the best gumbo and bread pudding with caramel sauce that he'd ever tasted in or out of New Orleans. Jovial and motherly Mable made him feel like he'd known her all of his life. Gordie ends his visit with Mable stimulated both mentally and physically by her ability to spin tales of Old New Orleans just as well as she cooked.

7 THE LAST STOP Velma Jones, 65, a charter bus driver, makes her last run before her retirement. Many of the passengers on the trip are regulars on her run between Los Angeles and Las Vegas. A few of them were along on her first trip twenty four years ago. She's going to miss the passengers and the road. Velma possesses a tremendous singing voice and has always aspired to be a professional singer. But had never received that big break. Just as comfortable behind a microphone as she was behind the steering wheel, Velma always serenaded the passengers on her bus as they rolled along the highway. Velma's accepted an off the strip club owner's offer to sing with his band. She knows the experience would be good exposure that might lead to better offers. But though Velma's good at concealing it, the thought of walking out on stage in front of an audience gives Velma the jitters.
