Essays on Modern Kurdish Literature Alireza Korangy, Mahlagha Mortezaee, 2023-07-04 Literature images and metaphor are often where most of a nation's history are embedded A study of modern Kurdish literature highlights a fealty to a rich literary past and a rich source of historiography The articles in this volume address many facets of the literary in the Kurdish world: proverbs, feminist literature and resistance in literary works, poetry, prose etc In the end the volume offers a general paradigm of the complex literary framework of the Kurds, their continuous resistance for nationhood in their history and their modern reinventing of the self An overview of some of the works in modern Kurdish literature points to both asymmetry and commonality in comparative literary studies These works highlight the thematic reach in Kurdish literary studies

Gender Matters in Global Politics Laura J. Shepherd, 2010-01-21 Gender Matters in Global Politics is a comprehensive textbook for advanced undergraduates studying feminism, international relations, gender and global politics and similar courses It provides students with an accessible but in depth account of the most significant theories, methodologies, debates and issues This textbook is written by an international line up of established and emerging scholars from a range of theoretical perspectives providing students with provocative and cutting edge insights into the study and practices of how gender matters in global politics Key features and benefits of the book: Introduces students to the wide variety of feminist and gender theory and explains the relevance to contemporary global politics Explains the insights of feminist theory for a range of other disciplines including international relations, international political economy and security studies Addresses a large number of key contemporary issues such as human rights, trafficking, rape as a tool of war, peacekeeping and state building, terrorism and environmental politics Features extensive pedagogy to facilitate learning: seminar exercises, text boxes, photographs, suggestions for further reading, web resources and a glossary of key terms In this innovative and groundbreaking textbook gender is represented as a noun, a verb and a logic, allowing both students and lecturers to develop a sophisticated understanding of the crucial role that gender plays in the theories, policies and practices of global politics

Researching Displacement Together Sonja Marzi, Rachel Pain, Jen Tarr, 2025-07-30 This book showcases how to co-produce research when we are unable to meet in the same geographical space It details a remote and hybrid audio-visual participatory methodology through which women share their experiences of displacement, gender and the city Writing as researchers and filmmakers in the UK and Colombia alongside 24 displaced women in Bogotá and Medellín this participatory audio-visual project explores displacement from the women's perspectives The book is innovative in its collaborative writing and its combination of audio-visual and textual material It presents a methodology for remote and hybrid research, advocating for more inclusive, equitable and decolonising research interactions Through three co-written chapters it contributes to themes of displacement, gender and the city as displaced women share testimonies and audio-visual outputs revealing experiences of violence conflict and aspirations for change as they rebuild their lives This book stands out for its collaborative authorship and integration of text with audio visual material offering rich insights It will interest researchers and practitioners working inside and outside universities who are interested in developing remote hybrid and audio visual participatory methodologies as well as those who want to understand more about displacement and the challenges of urban resettlement from women s perspectives After reading this book we d appreciate if you could let us know what you think by answering some quick questions <https://app.onlinesurveys.jisc.ac.uk/s/newcastle-co-producing-knowledge-with-displaced-women-in-colombia> The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4 0 license

Giving Voice to Diversity in Criminological Research James Windle,Orla Lynch,Yasmine Ahmed,2021-09-03 The people most impacted by criminal justice policies and practices are seldom included in the decision making processes that affect their lives Building on the nothing about us without us social movement this edited volume advocates an inclusive approach to criminology that gives voice to historically marginalized silenced and ignored groups Incorporating the experiences of service users academics and state and grassroots practitioners this volume considers how researchers might bridge the gap between theory and lived experience It furthers criminological scholarship by capturing the voices of marginalized groups and exploring how criminology can authentically incorporate these voices

Childhood and the Production of Security J Marshall Beier,2018-02-02 Responding to security scholars puzzling dearth of attention to children and childhoods the contributors to this volume reveal the ways in which they not only are already present in security discourses but are actually indispensable to them and to the political projects they make possible From zones of conflict to everyday life contexts in the post industrial Global North dominant ideas about childhood work to regulate the constitution of political subjects whilst variously enabling and foreclosing a wide range of political possibilities Whether on the battlefields of Syria in the halls of the UN or the conceptual musings of disciplinary Security Studies claims about or ostensibly on behalf of children are ubiquitous Recognizing children as engaged political subjects however challenges us to bring a sustained critical gaze to the discursive and semiotic deployments of children and childhood in projects not of their making as well as to the ways in which power circulates through and around them This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Studies on Security

Remaking Home Maja Korac,2009 Rather than emphasising boundaries and territories by examining the integration and acculturation of the immigrant or the refugee this book offers insights into the ideas and practices of individuals settling into new societies and cultures It analyses their ideas of connecting and belonging their accounts of the past the present and the future the interaction and networks of relations practical strategies and the different meanings of home and belonging that are constructed in new sociocultural settings The author uses empirical research to explore the experiences of refugees from the successor states of Yugoslavia who are struggling to make a home for themselves in Amsterdam and Rome By explaining how real people navigate through the difficulties of their displacement as well as the numerous scenarios and barriers to their emplacement the author sheds new light on our understanding of what it is like to be a refugee
