Cullen as well as the immeasurable influence that he has had on the field for over 40 years. With over 500 publications to his name and more than 67 000 citations to his work, Frank Cullen has left an indelible mark on the fields of criminology and criminal justice. Although best known for his work on rehabilitation and criminological theory, Frank also has profusely published in and shaped the areas of white collar crime, the use of meta analytic techniques to organize knowledge, the sexual victimization of college women, and public opinion on crime and punishment. However, Frank's legacy on the field is not limited to his scholarly contributions. He has served as a mentor to countless students, colleagues, and others in the field, helping support and guide the next generation of scholars. Thus, the current volume is organized to recognize both his scholarly work and mentoring, as well as to provide an opportunity for Frank to reflect on his career in his own words. The result is a collection of essays from Frank's former students, colleagues, and friends, written to pay homage to the more than 40 years of work he has done to advance criminological knowledge and shape the field.
