Situations And Individuals:

The Oxford Handbook of Psychological Situations John F. Rauthmann, Ryne Sherman, David Charles Funder, 2020

Situations matter. They let people express their personalities and values, provoke motivations, emotions, and behaviors, and are the contexts in which people reason and act. The psychological assessment of situations is a new and rapidly developing area of research, particularly within the fields of personality and social psychology. This volume compiles state-of-the-art knowledge on psychological situations in chapters written by experts in their respective research areas. Comprising 300 entries, the Encyclopedia of Identity offers readers an opportunity to understand identity as a socially constructed phenomenon, a dynamic process both public and private, shaped by past experiences and present circumstances and evolving over time. Offering a broad, comprehensive overview of the definitions, politics, manifestations, concepts, and ideas related to identity, the entries include short biographies of major thinkers and leaders as well as discussions of events, personalities, and concepts. The Encyclopedia of Identity is designed for readers to grasp the nature and breadth of identity as a psychological, social, anthropological, and popular idea. Key Themes: Art, Class, Developing Identities, Gender, Sex, and Sexuality, Identities in Conflict, Language and Discourse, Living Ethically, Media and Popular Culture, Nationality, Protecting Identity, Race, Culture and Ethnicity, Relating Across

By understanding and applying the principles of motivation described in the text, students will not only discover insights into what motivates their own behavior but also how to instigate self-change through goal setting. Throughout the book, the author adopts an evolutionary approach to explore the effect of interpersonal relationships, food preferences, fear, music, and the emotions on motivation at the same time, considering how personality traits and psychological needs are essential for understanding why people are motivated by different things. The motivation of compulsive behavior from addictions such as drugs, gambling, Internet gaming, and obsessive exercise is also considered, providing a truly comprehensive overview of biological, psychological, and environmental sources of motivation. The sixth edition has been thoroughly updated throughout and is accompanied by an instructor's manual that contains multiple-choice questions, essay questions with answers, websites related to motivation and emotion, power-point slides for class activities, and discussion questions.
