Showcasing the Great Experiment Michael David-Fox, 2012-01-12 Showcasing the Great Experiment provides the most far reaching account of Soviet methods of cultural diplomacy innovated to influence Western intellectuals and foreign visitors Probing the declassified records of agencies charged with crafting the international image of communism it reinterprets one of the great cross cultural and trans ideological encounters of the twentieth century Soviet Intelligence and Security Services 1964-70 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1972 Soviet Intelligence and Security Services: 1964-70 Library of Congress. Congressional Research Service, 1972 Nikolai Zabolotsky Darra Goldstein, 1993 This book first published in 1994 was the first critical study to appear in English on Nikolai Zabolotsky one of the great poets of twentieth century Russia

Ukraine's Many Faces Olena Palko, Manuel Férez Gil, 2023-08-22 Russia's large scale invasion on the 24th of February 2022 once again made Ukraine the focus of world media Behind those headlines remain the complex developments in Ukraine's history national identity culture and society Addressing readers from diverse backgrounds this volume approaches the history of Ukraine and its people through primary sources from the early modern period to the present Each document is followed by an essay written by an expert on the period and a conversational piece touching on the ongoing Russian aggression against Ukraine In this ground breaking collection Ukraine's history is sensitively accounted for by scholars inviting the readers to revisit the country's history and culture With a foreword by Olesya Khromeychuk

Assassins Boris Volodarsky, 2020-02-19 In November 1998 Alexander Litvinenko a former Lieutenant Colonel of the Russian security service or FSB along with several former colleagues publicly stated that their superiors had instigated an assassination attempt on a Russian tycoon and oligarch Following his subsequent arrest and failed trials Litvinenko fled to London where having been granted asylum he worked as a journalist and writer as well as acting as a consultant for the British intelligence services Eight years later Litvinenko's past caught up with him when he was assassinated in London It was on 1 November 2006 that Litvinenko was suddenly taken ill so serious was his condition that he was hospitalised He passed away twenty two days later Significant amounts of a rare and highly toxic element were subsequently found in his body Before his death Litvinenko had said You may succeed in silencing one man but the howl of protest from around the world Mr Putin will reverberate in your ears for the rest of your life In this examination of the events surrounding Litvinenko's murder the author Boris Volodarsky who was consulted by the Metropolitan Police during the investigation and remains in close contact with Litvinenko's widow details the events surrounding the assassination He brings the story up to date referring to the findings of the official British inquiry on the release of which Prime Minister David Cameron condemned Putin for presiding over state sponsored murder The author proves that the Litvinenko's poisoning is just one of many Some of these assassinations or attempted assassinations are already known others are revealed by him for the first time Federal Register ,1997-12-17 Religion, Myth and Folklore in the World's Epics Lauri Honko,2011-08-02 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin,Irina Livezeanu,Christine D. Worobec,June Pachuta Farris,2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes Leaving Footprints in the Taiga Donatas Brandišauskas,2016-10-01 Nowhere have recent environmental and social changes been more pronounced than in post Soviet Siberia Donatas Brandišauskas probes the strategies that Orochen reindeer herders of southeastern Siberia have developed to navigate these changes Catching luck is one such strategy that plays a central role in Orochen cosmology luck implies a vernacular theory of causality based on active interactions of humans non humans material objects and places Brandišauskas describes in rich details the skills knowledge ritual practices storytelling and movements that enable the Orochen to catch luck or not sometimes to navigate times of change and upheaval The Realization of the Verbal Composition of Speech by Preschool Children Sof'ja N. Karpova,2017-12-04 No detailed description available for The Realization of the Verbal Composition of Speech by Preschool Children Wings, Women, and War Reina Pennington,2002-01-22 The Soviet Union was the first nation to allow women pilots to fly combat missions During World War II the Red Air Force formed three all female units grouped into separate fighter dive bomber and night bomber regiments while also recruiting other women to fly with mostly male units Their amazing story fully recounted for the first time by Reina Pennington honors a group of fearless and determined women whose exploits have not yet received the recognition they deserve Pennington chronicles the creation organization and leadership of these regiments as well as the experiences of the pilots navigators bomb loaders mechanics and others who made up their ranks all within the context of the Soviet air war on the Eastern Front These regiments flew a combined total of more than 30 000 combat sorties produced at least thirty Heroes of the Soviet Union and included at least two fighter aces Among their ranks were women like Marina Raskova the Soviet Amelia Earhart a renowned aviator who persuaded Stalin in 1941 to establish the all women regiments the daredevil night witches who flew ramshackle biplanes on nocturnal bombing missions over German frontlines and fighter aces like Liliia Litviak whose twelve kills are largely unknown in the West She also tells the story of Alexander Gridnev a fighter pilot twice arrested by the Soviet secret police before he was chosen to command the women s fighter regiment Pennington draws upon personal interviews and the Soviet archives to detail the recruitment training and combat lives of these women Deftly mixing anecdote with analysis her work should find a wide readership among scholars and buffs interested in the history of aviation World War II or the Russian military as well as anyone concerned with the contentious debates surrounding military and combat service for women
