Holloway, 2024-12-31 This book argues for a new articulation of the ways in which transgression is theorized in contemporary literature by Japanese women Exploring the rhetorical and discursive mechanics of literary bad girls from fiction produced during the millennial turn 1990 2010 the book contends that women writers today deploy truant unruly restless and aggressive female protagonists not to challenge the status quo but rather to reaffirm it While Japanese women's fiction has long been invested in cultivating an uncomfortable politics of opposition through unladylike themes such as sex sexuality and violence the book argues that today authors turn to such acts of defiance to quietly advocate for the primacy of Japanese social order Showing how transgression has not only lost its political and disruptive valence in contemporary women's fiction this book further reveals how discourses of dissent can be retooled to promote a conservative worldview A fascinating literary analysis which reads Japanese literature in relation to the receding value of rebellion today this book will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Japanese literature gender and cultural studies The Short Story Ailsa Cox, 2009-03-26 Long regarded as an undervalued and marginalised genre the short story is undergoing a renaissance The Short Story celebrates its unique appeal Practitioners and scholars address the issues facing short story criticism in the 21st century Author A L Kennedy shares the pleasures and frustrations of writing the short story in the literary marketplace This is followed by an assessment of recent attempts to promote short story readership in the UK Other contributors look at forms such as the short short and the short story sequence The range of authors discussed includes Martin Amis Anita Desai Salman Rushdie and James Joyce The short story is the most international of genres this is reflected in chapters on Jorge Luis Borges and Italo Calvino and on Japanese short fiction Postcolonial and translation theory are combined with the close reading of specific texts Neglected authors such as the Welsh writer Dorothy Edwards and the colonial figure Frank Swettenham are re-evaluated and we also consider genre writing with chapters on crime fiction and Ray Bradbury's Martian
