The Pastor in a Changing Society Zawadi Job

Kinyamagoha,2014-10-07 This book examines how social change affects the role of the pastor in an African context Through field study in African churches author Zawadi Job Kinyamagoha explores how pastors work amid the tensions of rapid social change and suggests how pastors can constructively respond to social change by using it as an opportunity in their pastoral ministry Contemporary society is characterized by three cultural spheres the economic sphere the public sphere and the democratic or self governance rule the realities of which many pastors seem to overlook Church authorities seem to adhere rigidly to strict principles and rules without accommodating the realities of society Conversely a changing society demands that pastors work with the reality at hand leaving pastors caught between two conflicting tensions the pressure from church authorities and from a changing social reality The Pastor in a Changing Society seeks to help Tanzanian and African pastors rethink existing doctrines and practices in order to better respond to the reality of a changing society

Blacks, Latinos, and Asians in Urban America James Jennings,1994-09-30 This volume of essays by scholars and activists focuses on the political and social relations between blacks Latinos and Asians in key urban centers Collectively the essays examine the particular status of relations between these groups the reasons for conflict or consensus and the prospects for future relations While a number of cities are examined the book focuses on Los Angeles Washington D C and Miami as particularly instructive case studies Urban eruptions in these cities are examined in terms of the nature of political relations between blacks Latinos and Asians These essays provide analyses within a sociohistorical context and offer the kind of political activism that might ensure consensus rather than conflict between these groups in urban America As Luis Fuentes observes This book should be read by all activists and scholars interested in changing the face of urban and ultimately national America for if communities of color can come together for progressive political action then it will only be a matter of time before America finally begins to look like and act like what it has been preaching for generations Urban
