Social Transformation Nomthetho Simelane,1995 Social Transformation Nomthetho G. Simelane,1995 The Plantation Economy and the Social-economic Transformation in Swaziland Hamilton Sipho Simelane,1998 Swaziland: Contemporary Social and Economic Issues Peter G. Forster,Bongani J. Nsibande,2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2000 Up to date information on socio economic issues in contemporary Swaziland is not always readily accessible This work fills that gap by including contributions by Swazi scholars based on recent research Swaziland is of particular interest because of its culture and development the special characteristics of small states and regional development in Southern Africa Swaziland faces some problems found generally in developing areas but others are distinctive The cultural dimension to development is paid close attention throughout Religion and Politics in Swaziland R. Simangaliso Kumalo,2013-01-01 The author offers a candid reflection on the interface between politics and religion in Swaziland by reflecting on the works of Joshua Mzizi The strength of the book lies in the fact that the author a public theologian gives insight into the bigger story the interface between politics and religion in Africa Africa South of the Sahara 2004 Europa Publications,2003 A definitive one volume guide to all sub Saharan African countries providing invaluable economic and directory data Africa South of the Sahara 2003 Europa Publications,2002-10-31 A one volume library of essential and comprehensive data on all the countries of sub Saharan Africa including essays on regional issues statistical surveys and directories of invaluable contact names and addresses G.K. Hall Interdisciplinary Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,2000 Democracy, Transformation, Conflict and Public Policy in Swaziland ,2003 Negotiating Livelihoods Edward Ontita,2006 The failures of rural development policy to bring about widespread improvement of rural livelihoods have never been adequately examined and explained There exist knowledge gaps on how poor people arrive at livelihood priorities and deal with concomitant policies as well as how they perceive mould and use resources to service their livelihood priorities and lifestyles Hence this exploratory study has been designed to examine poor people s livelihood priorities the relevant policies and their responses to those policies Furthermore the study will explore the poor people s perceptions production and co production of resources and how they use them to service their livelihood priorities Following that the study will from the poor people s perspectives isolate and explain viable and non viable livelihood outcomes Forum for Development Studies ,1997 Labour Migration to South Africa in the 1990s ,1998 Investigates the socio economic benefits of migration for both South Africa and its labour sending neighbours the factors influencing migration patterns and the prospects for regional cooperation on migration issues Poverty in Swaziland ,2003 Local Environmental Change and Society in Africa M.A. Salih,2012-12-06 The Organization for Social Science Research in Eastern and Southern Africa OSSREA is a network of social scientists in the sub region established in 1980 Its main objectives are to encourage and promote interest to engage in collaborative research to facilitate scholarly exchange of ideas and publication between individuals and institutions engaged in the study and research in the social sciences OSSREA also aims to promote the training of social scientists from the sub region in the study of and research in the social sciences and to encourage establishment of institutions dedicated to this goal In pursuance of and consistent with its objectives OSSREA established a fund to provide research grants and training fellowships to social scientists from the sub region Every year OSSREA offers on a competitive basis two limited types of research grants the first on topics related to the social sciences in general and the second on gender issues in particular The grants assist the social scientists to conduct field research in an eastern or southern African country society institutions sector or problem area The objectives of the social science competition are intended to encourage and promote upcoming scholars from the sub region to conduct research in the social economic political or other problems Moreover it aims to strengthen and raise the capacity of faculty members and students in field research and promote the subsequent availability of research findings for teaching as well as to inform individuals and institutions

Journalism and Social Media in Africa Chris Paterson,2019-07-09 Through innovative research studies and expert commentaries this book documents the fast evolving invention of the relationship between the millions of social media and mobile phone users around Africa and traditional purveyors of news Whilst social media demonstrates an unprecedented ability for the politically engaged to both bypass and influence traditional information flows it also faces unique circumstances through much of Africa Signs of social change brought by mobile technology are evident around the continent raising questions about the nature of information exchange and citizenship Working from a wide variety of perspectives and methodologies the contributors to this collection address key questions emerging from rapid communication change in Africa This book reveals how new participatory interactive communications technologies are enabling new tellings of Africa s stories This book was originally published as a special issue of Ecquid Novi African Journalism Studies

Customary Nationalism in Crisis Vito Laterza,Casey Golomski,2025-11-03 This book examines the aftermath of eSwatini s fiftieth anniversary of independence and the COVID 19 pandemic when many citizens of this last absolute monarchy in Africa took to their communities in unprecedented protests for democratic reform For raising their voices they were met with brutal police violence Customary Nationalism in Crisis offers snapshots of life in the Kingdom leading up to and in the aftermath of this epic moment providing lessons to the world on the power of the government to shape our lives through the guise of custom and tradition and the power of ordinary people to resist this Through a range of research written primarily by scholar nationals of eSwatini the book shows how ordinary women men and young people redefine language and their identities ethnic racial and gender and question what it means to be a citizen from their classrooms to clinics and from their workplaces to the halls of Parliament Customary Nationalism in Crisis shows that despite the persistence of authoritarianism citizens also adapt over the long term to survive and thrive This volume will appeal to scholars and students in African studies political science anthropology sociology and gender studies as well as policymakers human rights advocates and development practitioners interested in southern Africa The chapters in this volume were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Contemporary African Studies Urbanization and Development in Swaziland V. N. Muzvidziwa, Agostino M. Zamberia, 2006
