The Logic of Evangelism William James Abraham, 1989 Defining evangelism as initiating people into the kingdom Abraham critiques contemporary church growth and evangelism from a theological perspective A good text for a graduate level course on evangelism

Social Action Seumas Miller, 2001-11-26 Social action is central to social thought This centrality reflects the overwhelming causal significance of action for social life the centrality of action to any account of social phenomena and the fact that conventions and normativity are features of human activity This book provides philosophical analyses of fundamental categories of human social action including cooperative action conventional action social norm governed action and the actions of the occupants of organizational roles A distinctive feature of the book is that it applies these theories of social action categories to some important moral issues that arise in social contexts such as the collective responsibility for environmental pollution humanitarian intervention and dealing with the rights of minority groups Avoiding both the excessively atomistic individualism of rational choice theorists and implausible collectivist assumptions this important book will be widely read by philosophers of the social sciences political scientists and sociologists Social Action and Social Work Benjamin E. Youngdahl, 1966 Communication in Extension Harry A. Carey, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1999-01-01 Communication in extension plays an important role in technology transfer whereas many field extension workers are poorly trained in this particular area as well as in the development of educational materials This publication was prepared as a teaching and learning guide to be used in the pre service and in service education of extension staff community development workers and all those who work and serve in rural communities It can be considered as an extension methodology tool box to train extension field staff in their work at the village level Transforming Social Action into Social Change Shana Cohen, 2017-05-25 Cohen offers a new framework for analyzing social projects and local social activism Rather than look at how single projects are designed and managed to evaluate their impact the approach calls for analyzing fields of social action policy and politics institutional behavior social networks among policymakers and practitioners and availability of funding and other resources Combined they affect the conceptualization of a social problem and the design and practice of social intervention More broadly through circumscribing the range of thinking about social problems they delimit possibilities to generate social change Analyzing fields also allows for linking macro level trends in areas like policy to decision making within individual organizations and the effectiveness of projects at instigating the desired transformation in individual and collective behavior Working together policymakers individual activists nonprofit organizations and staff in public institutions like schools and hospitals can critique and alter fields to challenge more effectively social problems This collaboration in turn affects how social policies are designed and ultimately the politics of social change Alfred Schutz's Sociological Aspect of Literature Lester Embree, 1997-12-31 The maintext in the present volume has been constructed out of passages found scattered about in thirty five years of Alfred Schutz's writings and it has been constructed by following a page of notes for a lecture that he gave in 1955 under the title Sociological Aspect of Literature The result can be considered the substance of Schutz's contribution to the theory of literature More detail about how this construction has been performed is offered in the Editor's Introduction The complementary essays are by scholars from Germany Japan and the United States from several generations and from the disciplines of anthropology philosophy and sociology These researchers were invited to reflect in their own perspectives on the main text and in relation to matters referred to within and beyond it Draft versions of most of these complementary essays were presented for critical discussion in a research symposium held at the Graduate

Faculty of Political and Social Science of the New School for Social Research on April 28-29 1995 under the sponsorship of The Center for Advanced Research in Phenomenology Inc Florida Atlantic University The Department of Philosophy of The Graduate Faculty of the New School Richard 1 Bernstein Chair and Evelyn and George Schutz the philosopher's children Revised versions of these presentations and also several essays subsequently recruited are offered to begin yet another stage in the history of scholarship on Schutz and the phenomenological research inspired by him Northwestern University Press is thanked for permission to quote extensively from Alfred Schutz The Phenomenology of the Social World trans

Social Action, 2011 Grassroots Social Action Charles V. Willie, Steven Ridini, David Willard, 2008 Willie and his colleagues analyze social action from the bottom up The focus is on how people outside the traditional circuits of authority exercise power and how their actions relate to bureaucratic social action from the top down All told the contributors offer a critical The Explanation of Social Action John Levi Martin, 2021-06-15 This thought provoking and ambitious book is a sustained critique of the conventional understanding of what it means to explain something in the social sciences This paperback edition includes a new preface in which Martin connects The Explanation of Social Action to deep neural networks that are important to the study of artificial intelligence and to the development of computational social science Roma, Gypsies, Travellers Jean-Pierre Liégeois, 1994-01-01 This book provides an understanding of Gypsies and Travellers by introducing the reader to the richness of their culture and lifestyle The Myth of Social Action Colin Campbell, 1998-07-09 The Myth of Social Action first published in 1996 is a powerful critique of the sociology of the time and a call to reject the prevailing orthodoxy Arguing that sociological theory had lost its way Colin Campbell mounts a case for a new dynamic interpretivism a perspective on human conduct which is more in keeping with the spirit of traditional Weberian action theory Discussing and dismissing one by one the main arguments of those who reject individualistic action theory he demonstrates that this has been wrongly rejected in favour of the interactional social situationalist approach now dominating sociological thought AGED IN URBAN FAMILIES: A Case-Study of the Aged in Goan and Punjabi Families in Mumbai Vatika Sibal, 2024-09-10 In our journey of life we pass through different stages and undergo varying relationships with members of our family relatives and community at large As a child our relationships and experiences with parents are different from what we have during our adolescence and as married persons All these experiences have an impact on our life Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2004 Kingdom Theology G. Carlton Moore, 2024-06-18 What this book argues for in today's twenty first century church was a hallmark doctrine of old school Presbyterianism of the nineteenth century the doctrine of the spirituality of the church Which eschatological approach one uses will affect one's understanding of the nature and practice of missions Mission creep the expansion of the church's original objective's is a real concern for the contemporary church and how one understands eschatology affects one's focus on missions The mission of the church is narrow Matt 28:18-20 and the calling of individual believers is broad Rom 12:1-2 If we fail to make this crucial distinction the church's mission will lose its biblical emphasis And if the church's mission is lost then the authority structure instantiated in the offices and officers of the church devolves into illegitimacy because the church is no longer advancing the kingdom ends she was mandated to do by King Jesus If the institutional church fails to do this we will be relinquishing and abdicating and abandoning our most singular and particular and peculiar kingdom of God vocation the harvesting gathering and perfecting of the saints
