Sourcebook of Family Theories and Methods Pauline Boss, William J. Doherty, Ralph LaRossa, Walter R. Schumm, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, 1993-03-31 Origins We call this book on theoretical orientations and methodological strategies in family studies a sourcebook because it details the social and personal roots i e sources from which these orientations and strategies flow Thus an appropriate way to preface this book is to talk first of its roots its beginnings In the mid 1980s there emerged in some quarters the sense that it was time for family studies to take stock of itself A goal was thus set to write a book that like Janus would face both backward and forward a book that would give readers both a perspective on the past and a map for the future There were precedents for such a project The Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Harold Christensen and published in 1964 the two Contemporary Theories about the Family volumes edited by Wesley Burr Reuben Hill F Ivan Nye and Ira Reiss published in 1979 and the Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Marvin Sussman and Suzanne Steinmetz then in production

Political and Social Change in Pakistan's Tribal Areas Naveed Ahmad Shinwari, 2025-05-23 This book analyses agency and place of youth within the Pashtun tribal social order in Pakistan It looks at Pashtun youth as a separate social category analysing their changing trends of political leadership in Pakistan s former Federally Administered Tribal Areas FATA Presenting an in depth ethnographic inquiry into the intricate dynamics of political leadership manifest among the Pashtun youth hailing from the erstwhile FATA this book adds more depth to the understanding of political developments and the peculiar relationship between FATA and Pakistan in general The author argues that events following the Soviet invasion and post 9 11 have disrupted traditional age based relations in Pashtun society enabling young adults to assert their political agency in unprecedented ways This book demonstrates how Pashtun youth have emerged at the forefront of politics through avenues such as Talibanisation migration elite politics and the Pashtun social movement These young individuals are redefining politics in FATA and across Pakistan playing a pivotal role in shaping new relationships between the Pashtun community and the Pakistani nation By demystifying longstanding misconceptions and stereotypes perpetuated since British colonial times and post independence Pakistan and the evolving political dynamics in the context of the post withdrawal phase of US forces from Afghanistan in August 2021 this book provides new empirical evidence and insights into social injustices faced by Pashtun youth Analysing themes such as political alliances among diverse youth groups identity politics expressions of agency migration and the importance of urban spaces for activism and rights claims the study sheds light on the dynamic role of Pashtun youth in contemporary South Asia making it essential reading for understanding the region s socio political landscape It will be of interest to researchers studying politics and society in Pakistan and Afghanistan anthropology and post conflict reconstruction in South Asia

Neighborhoods, Family, and Political Behavior in Urban America Yvette Alex-Assensoh, 2018-10-24 Undergirded by a multidisciplinary framework of political science geography and sociology this book examines the manner in which neighborhood economic resources and family structure shape individual political behavior among white and black citizens in urban America      Social and Political Contexts of Family Therapy Marsha Pravder Mirkin, 1989-01-01

Comprehensive Handbook of Psychotherapy, Interpersonal/Humanistic/Existential Florence W. Kaslow, Robert F. Control and Consolation in American Culture and Politics Dana Cloud, 1998 What are the consequences in American society when social and political activism is replaced by pursuit of personal psychological change How does such a shift happen Where is it visible In wide ranging case studies Control and Consolation in American Culture and Politics points out this change in American culture and attributes it to the rhetoric of therapy This rhetoric is defined as a pervasive cultural discourse that applies psychotherapy's lexicon the constructive language of healing coping adaptation and restoration of a previously existing order to social and political conflict The purpose of this therapeutic discourse is to encourage people to focus on themselves and their private lives rather than to attempt to reform flawed systems of social and political power Author Dana L Cloud focuses on the therapeutic discourse that emerged after the Vietnam War and links its rise to specific political and economic interests The critical case studies describe in detail not only what the therapeutic style looks like but how and why therapeutic discourses are persuasive These studies include the rhetoric of family values media coverage of support groups during the Persian Gulf War Gloria Steinem's Revolution from Within the film Thelma and Louise and literature of the New Age Movement Cloud concludes with a chapter urging resistance to the therapeutic persuasion she describes envisioning in its place engaged public politics At once unique and engaging Control and Consolation in American Culture and Politics is a must read for academics and students interested in communication studies cultural studies sociology political science and media studies

Sourcebook of Family Theory and Research Vern L. Bengtson, 2005 Now available in paperback for classroom use This comprehensive text provides a rich source of perspectives on theorising about the family for scholars researchers and students Another of the book's strengths is the emphasis on multimethod approaches in family research The book covers an impressive range of topics and issues marital happiness adjustment of children in divorce marriages gay marriage sibling ties ethnic families of colour stepfamilies aggression culture work and family religion and social policy to name a few In summary this superb volume is highly recommended and amply reflects the many contemporary perspectives on the family Philip Siebler Monash University Victoria Sponsored by the National Council on Family Relations the Sourcebook of Family Theory and Research is the reference work on theory and methods for family scholars and students around the world This volume provides a diverse eclectic and paradoxically mature approach to theorizing and demonstrates how the development of theory is crucial to the future of family research The Sourcebook reflects an interactive approach that focuses on the process of theory building and designing research thereby engaging readers in doing theory rather than simply reading about it An accompanying website offers additional participation and interaction in the process of doing theory and making science Editors Vern L Bengtson Alan C Acock Katherine R Allen Peggye Dilworth Anderson and David M Klein have brought together a prominent group of diverse contributors ranging in race and ethnicity age and seniority and gender and sexual orientation The Sourcebook begins with a section that sets the context for future family research The subsequent sections explore changing family patterns changing family interactions within and across generations and families and larger social forces A concluding section discusses issues of teaching family theories and research Key Features Focuses on the process rather than the outcomes of family theory and research methods Emphasizes the value of multi methods approaches in family research by integrating theory development with the development of research methods Differs from many other publications on family research by describing the development of new ideas rather than just summarizing existing findings The interactive Web site and the special feature boxes within the chapters engage readers with theory and methodology Boxed features include Case Studies Spotlights on Theory Spotlights on Methods and a Discussion and Extension sections Represents a Who's Who of family researchers with contributions from many of the best researchers in the family realm The Sourcebook will be an excellent addition to any academic library It is an authoritative reference for scholars and researchers in Human Development and Family Studies Sociology Social Work and Psychology In addition the Sourcebook can also be used in graduate courses on family theory and methodology

The Cinematic Representation of the Chinese American Family Qijun Han, 2016-03-08 There has been an increasing recognition of the fluidity and ambiguity of ethnic identities within the context of global mobility With that in mind how have films constructed the identity of ethnic Chinese in the United States This book addresses this issue through three sub questions First why is the family narrative so characteristic of films about Chinese Americans in transnational Chinese cinema In other words how and why are images of Chinese or Chinese Americans in transnational Chinese cinema different from those in Hollywood movies Second how does transnational Chinese cinema define and negotiate the aesthetic conventions of melodrama commonly used to depict Chinese American families In terms of establishing melodrama as an evolving mode of how does Chinese American cinema historically connect with both Hollywood and Chinese cinema Third what have the narrative treatments of Chinese American families in transnational Chinese cinema contributed to the ongoing representation of Chinese culture and construction of ethnic Chinese identities in Western societies This book traverses fields such as cultural studies Chinese studies media studies American studies and film studies and engages with a select corpus of films from the 1990s to the 2000s directed by Chinese American Taiwanese and Hong Kong filmmakers and produced in the USA Taiwan Hong Kong and mainland China to analyze the role the American Chinese family plays in their work With sensitivity towards transnational bonds and historical processes a negotiation process of three sets of conflicting forces has subsequently emerged the traditional and the modern the national and the transnational and Chinese American identity crisis in favor of a Chinese identity or a true American identity Contrasting cultural beliefs undoubtedly create cross cultural and generational conflicts within the family yet also open the way to negotiation and compromise This research on the cinematic depiction of Chinese Americans reveals the historically significant transnational connection among Chinese American Chinese and American cultures On the one hand ethnic Chinese are represented by boundaries that establish and define the Chinese American community against other communities and yet on the other hand the representation of family life and structure of Chinese immigrants is multiple and fluid as culture itself is unstable and uncertain Therefore a process of fixation and a process of fluidity seem to take place at the same time      Blood Ties and Politics Louie Benedict R.

Ignacio, Veronica L. Gregorio, Clarence M. Batan, Sampson Lee Blair, 2025-09-02 Topics of discussion include political socialization within the family the influence of extremist online websites marital quality and political ideologies political disagreement and family relationships the impact of propaganda upon family relationships intergenerational patterns of political beliefs and other related issues      The History of Education Under Apartheid, 1948-1994 Peter Kallaway, 2002

Chinese Religion Xinzhong Yao, 2010-05-25 A new introduction To The field of Chinese religion and culture ideally suited to undergraduate students      Rights, Gender and Family Law Julie Wallbank, Shazia Choudhry, Jonathan Herring, 2009-12-04 There has been a widespread resurgence of rights talk in social and legal discourses pertaining to the regulation of family life as well as an increase in the use of rights in family law cases in the UK the US Canada and Australia Rights Gender and Family Law addresses the implications of these developments and in particular the impact of rights based approaches upon the idea of welfare and its practical application There are now many areas of family law in which rights and welfare based approaches have been forced together But whilst to many they are premised upon different ethics respectively of justice and of care for others they can nevertheless be reconciled In this respect a central concern is the gender blind character of rights based approaches and the ontological and practical consequences of their employment in the gendered context of the family Rights Gender and Family Law explores the tensions between rights based and welfare based approaches explaining their differences and connections considering whether if at all they are reconcilable and addressing the extent to which they can advantage or disadvantage the interests of women children and men It may be that rights based discourses will dominate family law at least in the way that social policy and legislation respond to calls of equality of rights between mothers and fathers This collection however argues that rights cannot be given centre stage without thinking through the ramifications for gendered power relations and the welfare of children It will be of interest to researchers and scholars working in the fields of family law gender studies and social welfare      Handbook of Parenting Marc H. Bornstein, 2005-02-16 Please see Volume I for a full description and table of contents for all four volumes      Handbook of Parenting: Being and becoming a parent Marc H. Bornstein, 2002 Despite the fact that most people become parents and everyone who has ever lived has had parents parenting remains a mystifying subject about which almost everyone has opinions but about which few people agree Striking permutations on the theme of parenting are emerging single parenthood blended families lesbian and gay parents and teen versus fifties first time moms and dads Divided into four volumes the Handbook of Parenting is concerned with different types of parents basic characteristics of parenting forces that shape parenting problems faced by parents and the practical sides of parenting Contributors have worked in different ways toward understanding all of these diverse aspects of parenting and look to the most recent research and thinking in the field to shed light on many topics every parent has wondered about Because development is too subtle dynamic and intricate to admit that parental caregiving alone determines the course and outcome of ontogeny Family Poverty in Diverse Contexts C. Anne Broussard, Alfred L. Joseph, 2008-09-30 Family Poverty in Diverse Contexts addresses the context of poverty in the United States and focuses on poverty issues that family members must confront as they move through the life course This edited collection provides a unique perspective that draws together macro and micro research about how poverty affects families throughout their lives increasing risks and reducing opportunities at every stage Individual chapters emphasize the context of poverty in the United States then go on to examine specific life cycle stages and what happens when poverty intersects with family concerns Contributing authors are respected experts in their fields and represent a broad range of disciplines and perspectives including child development community health education family studies gerontology disability public policy social work and sociology Family Poverty in Diverse Contexts includes a range of pedagogical features to enhance learning such as exercises and discussions relating to each chapter which will encourage readers to think critically and apply the knowledge to their own lives It will interest students academics and researchers of sociology family studies social work and health as well as other related disciplines
