Social Aspects Of Guerilla And Antiguerilla Warfare Studies In Comparative Modernization:

Social Aspects of Guerilla and Anti-guerilla Warfare Eliezer Ben Rafael, Moshe Lissak, 1979 Social Aspects of Guerilla and Anti-guerilla Warfare Eliezer Ben Rafael, Moshe Lissak, 1979 Monographic Series Library of Congress, 1980 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980 A London Bibliography of the Social Sciences, 1931 Vols 1 4 include material to June 1 1929 Social Structure and Political Order, Traditional and Modern Vietnam André Schönberg, 1979 The focus of these Studies in Comparative Modernization is both analytical and comparative probing the diverse social economic and political patterns which develop in different modernizing societies and the factors which can explain such diversity The papers presented test generalizations through comparative analyses or against specific case studies National Union Catalog, 1980 Includes entries for maps and atlases National Union Catalog, 1980, 1981 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1980-04 Subject Catalog, 1980 Library of Congress, 1980 Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 1984 Political and Military Sociology Neovi M. Karakatsanis, Jonathan Swarts, 2013-03-31 Several contributions in this volume focus on the modern Middle East with other articles examining justifications for war the return of war veterans white nationalists and the activities of the Moral Majority Maria Markantonatou addresses the blurring of distinctions between civilians and combatants Udi Lebel investigates how the IDF is being changed by the increasing number of religious Zionists recruited Orlee Hauser argues that the experiences of women in the IDF vary depending on their positions and assignments Bruce McDonald compares the performance of the Feder Ram and augmented Solow models in accounting for economic growth in Iran Neema Noori examines the interrelationship of war the state and mobilization in Iran Molly Clever examines the justifications for war employed by both state and non state actors Christina Knopf uses relational dialectics to examine US veteran transitions David Bugg and Dianne Dentice analyze attitudes and perceptions of white nationalists Finally Aaron Davis considers the rise of the Illinois state chapter of the Moral Majority in the 1980s This volume in the Political and Military Sociology series also includes reviews of important new books in civil military relations political science and military sociology Anti-racism and Multiculturalism Mark Alleyne, 2017-09-08 All scholarly books are engagements with the existing literature often the published scholarly work of one established discipline This book originated with modest objectives to produce a work that would be in conversation with the literature of international relations even though not of relevance only to that field The professed goal of international relations is international peace The ethical lens of pondering the best means to achieve world peace is used to filter media content in the field of multiculturalism and anti racism Although there has been little work on the impact of racial difference on the contours of contemporary international order there has been a sizeable body of research intended to abolish the credibility of pseudo scientific racism Such racism has provided the ideological foundation and justification for imperialism colonialism the holocaust and apartheid Race has been debunked as a myth Because of this racism the ideology bred of human classification according to racial difference has been found to be intellectually and morally barren But the need to communicate egalitarian and scientific sentiments remains The contributors to this volume consider five questions How does the literature on antiracism improve our understanding of conflict resolution How does the analysis of the media's role in racist and anti racist discourses improve the process of theorizing on hate and war propaganda How can research on anti racist discourse improve UN peacekeeping What implications does this subject have for theory building and cultural diversity How and why should the literature on anti racism expand research in international relations This is a unique worthwhile framework for cross disciplinary research in race and intellectual consensus and conflict International Books in Print, 1986 Hamilton College Catalogue Hamilton College (Clinton, N.Y.), 1969 Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1969-02 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Recent Issues in World Development Paul Streeten, Richard Jolly, 1981 Comparing Apples and Mangoes S. N. Sangmpam, 2012-02-01 Two competing approaches currently dominate the debate about the state and institutions in developing countries The first projects a picture of transnational vertical uniformity descending from the West to developing countries and views liberal democracy as the only game in town In this view the state and institutions resemble or ought to resemble those in the West The second by contrast explains political outcomes by local idiosyncrasies and regional variations in institutions In his original approach to third world politics S N Sangmpam challenges both views by uncovering important similarities in the political features of developing countries He shows that they share political behaviors and features unaccounted for in either local idiosyncratic or liberal democratic theories These behaviors converge toward a common property overpoliticization that defies political compromise leading to an overpoliticized state Sangmpam provides a wealth of empirical historical and quantitative evidence from Latin America Asia Africa and the West and demonstrates the overpoliticized state constitutes the cornerstone of an integrated theory of politics in developing countries Taking Power John Foran, 2005-11-17 Taking Power analyzes the causes behind some three dozen revolutions in the Third World between 1910 and the present It advances a theory that seeks to integrate the political economic and cultural factors that brought these revolutions about and links structural theorizing with original ideas on culture and agency It attempts to explain why so few revolutions have succeeded while so many have failed The book is divided into chapters that treat particular sets of revolutions including the great social revolutions of Mexico 1910 China 1949 Cuba 1959 Iran 1979 and Nicaragua 1979 the anticolonial revolutions in Algeria Vietnam Angola Mozambique and Zimbabwe from the 1940s to the 1970s and the failed revolutionary attempts in El Salvador Peru and elsewhere It closes with speculation about the future of revolutions in an age of globalization with special attention to Chiapas the post September 11 world and the global justice movement United States Doctoral Dissertations in Third World Studies, 1869-1978 Michael Sims, Mitsue Frey, 1980
