Society The Land:

Land Reforms in India Pramoda Kumāra Agravāla,1993 The book Land Reforms in India Constitutional and Legal Approach is a landmark in the field of land reforms It explores many new and important facts and principles of laws on the subject which are universally applicable The author discovered a mathematical formula to concretize the concept of land reforms and successfully applied it in his statistical study of implementation of land reforms in India with special reference to State of Uttar Pradesh There is an imperative need to implement the land laws in true spirit and with determination A

Ambaye,2015-02-13 This thesis provides a new approach to the Ethiopian Land Law debate The basic argument made in this thesis is that even if the Ethiopian Constitution provides and guarantees common ownership of land together with the state to the people this right has not been fully realized whether in terms of land accessibility enjoyability and payment of fair compensation in the event of expropriation Expropriation is an inherent power of the state to acquire land for public purpose activities It is an important development tool in a country such as Ethiopia where expropriation remains the only method to acquire land Furthermore the two preconditions of payment of fair compensation and existence of public purpose justifications are not strictly followed in Ethiopia The state remains the sole beneficiary of the process by capturing the full profit of land value while paying inadequate compensation to those who cede their land by expropriation Secondly the broader public purpose power of the state in expropriating the land for unlimited activities puts the property owners under imminent risk of expropriation United States Digest ,1869 Pittsburgh Legal Journal ,1912 Containing reports from Pennsylvania judicial districts and other leading decisions The Weekly Reporter ,1864 Transactions of the California State Agricultural Society California State Agricultural Society (Sacramento, Calif.),1874 American State Papers United States. Smith,2012-11-15 The Roots of Conservatism is the first attempt to ask why over the past two centuries so many Mexican peasants have opted to ally with conservative groups rather than their radical counterparts Blending socioeconomic history cultural analysis and political narrative Smith s study begins with the late Bourbon period and moves through the early republic the mid nineteenth century Reforma the Porfiriato and the Revolution when the Mixtecs rejected Zapatista offers of land distribution ending with the armed religious uprising known as the last Cristiada a desperate Cold War bid to rid the region of impious communist governance In recounting this long tradition of regional conservatism Smith emphasizes the influence of religious belief church ritual and lay clerical relations both on social relations and on political affiliation He posits that many Mexican peasants embraced provincial conservatism a variant of elite or metropolitan conservatism which not only comprised ideas on property hierarchy and the state but also the overwhelming import of the church to maintaining this system The Law Reports ,1922 Urban Land Rent Anne Haila,2015-12-14 In Urban Land Rent Anne Haila uses Singapore as a case study to develop an original theory of urban land rent with important implications for urban studies and urban theory Provides a comprehensive analysis of land rent theory and the modern city Examines the question of land from a variety of perspectives as a resource ideologies interventions in the land market actors in the land market the global scope of land markets and investments in land Details the Asian development state model historical and contemporary land regimes public housing models and the development industry for Singapore and several other cities Incorporates discussion of the modern real estate market with reference to real estate investment trusts sovereign wealth funds investing in real estate and the fusion between sophisticated financial instruments and real estate Catalogue of the British Section.
