Francophone Literature as World Literature Christian Moraru, Nicole Simek, Bertrand Westphal, 2020-06-25 Francophone Literature as World Literature examines French language works from a range of global traditions and shows how these literary practices draw individuals communities and their cultures and idioms into a planetary web of tension and cross fertilization The Francophone corpus under scrutiny here comes about in the evolving markedly relational context provided by these processes and their developments during and after the French empire The 15 chapters of this collection delve into key aspects moments and sites of the literature flourishing throughout the francosphere after World War II and especially since the 1980s from the French Hexagon to the Caribbean and India and from Quebec to the Maghreb and Romania Understood and practiced as World Literature Francophone literature claims with particular force in the wake of the literature monde debate its place in a more democratic world republic of letters where writers critics publishers and audiences are no longer beholden to traditional centers of cultural authority

Children's Literature Studies Linda C. Salem, 2005-11-30 This supplement to standard children's literature textbooks will be a help to instructors as they engage their students in discussions about selection of materials censorship dealing with curricular issues the need to understand administrative policies community beliefs and their responses to these issues It is designed to help instructors discuss books in ways that inspire collegiality collaboration and scholarship in book evaluation and selection Using actual case studies resource reviews and or scenarios of censorship religion violence ethnicity and other issues the instructor will be able to encourage discussion and reflective thought about real issues faced by teachers and librarians as they select materials for classroom or school library use This supplement to standard children's literature textbooks will be a help to instructors as they engage their students in discussions about selection of materials censorship dealing with curricular issues the need to understand administrative policies community beliefs and their responses to these issues It is designed to help them discuss books in ways that inspire collegiality collaboration and scholarship in book evaluation and selection Using actual case studies resource reviews and or scenarios of censorship religion violence ethnicity and other issues the instructor will be able to encourage discussion and reflective thought about real issues faced by teachers and librarians as they select materials for classroom or school library use Guides for possible resources for help in researching situations will be included This will prove a very valuable resource in teaching children's literature courses in schools of education and library schools and useful to practicing teachers and librarians as well Though the book is slanted toward the use of books as classroom materials it will be a valuable asset to a school library's professional collection and certainly valuable to the training of pre-service teachers and school librarians. Each chapter begins with a bibliographic essay that introduces the topic to the reader. The essay is designed as a starting point for further discussion and research. A list of references for each chapter is provided at the end of the chapter. These references represent sources teachers can use to conduct further research to find multiple perspectives about books.

100 Experiential Learning Activities for Social Studies, Literature, and the Arts, Grades 5-12 Eugene F. Provenzo, Jr., Dan W. Butin, Anthony Angelini, 2008-02-13. This unique contribution is both a wonderful source of teaching ideas and a reminder that authentic learning involves engaging experiences that encourage inquiry. Dan Thompson, Assistant Professor of Education, Penn State University. Educators are always looking for interesting activities that challenge students to think beyond the ordinary. The authors have done a great job of compiling a variety of activities for different subject areas. India Meissel, Social Studies and English Teacher, Lakeland High School, Suffolk, VA. Encourage critical thinking while teaching meaning through learning experiences. Learning in secondary school classrooms involves much more than students reciting the right answers on high-stakes tests. This activity-packed book encourages educators to move beyond traditional models of teaching and learning and provides them with the tools for getting started. 100 Experiential Learning Activities for Social Studies, Literature, and the Arts, Grades 5-12 focuses on using active learning to engage students in critical thinking and reflection about complex content knowledge in the humanities and the arts. Through easy-to-use matrices, the authors link lessons investigating history, economics, literature, music, and visual arts to McREL, NCTE, and NCSS standards. The 100 activities address significant social issues including social justice, culture, language, and diversity. Teachers can emphasize comprehension, encourage creative thinking, and promote transfer across disciplines to help students explore primary sources to uncover practical and relevant information. Construct careful arguments to integrate new learning with prior knowledge. Question deeply held assumptions to arrive at authentic understandings. Approach new ideas with confidence. Take your students through meaningful learning experiences and make knowledge come alive.

The Poetry and Poetics of Gerald Vizenor Deborah L. Madsen, 2012-12-01. The first book devoted exclusively to the poetry and literary aesthetics of one of Native America's most accomplished writers, this collection of essays brings together detailed critical analyses of single texts and individual poetry collections from diverse theoretical perspectives along with comparative discussions of Vizenor's related works. Contributors discuss Vizenor's philosophy of poetic expression, his innovations in diverse poetic genres, and the dynamic interrelationships between Vizenor's poetry and his prose writings. Throughout his poetic career, Vizenor has returned to common tropes, themes, and structures. Indeed, it is difficult to distinguish clearly his work in poetry from his prose fiction and drama. The essays gathered in this collection offer powerful evidence of the continuing influence of Anishinaabe dream songs and the haiku form in Vizenor's novels, stories, and theoretical essays. This influence is most obvious at the level of grammatical structure and imagistic composition but can also be discerned in terms of themes and issues to which Vizenor continues to return Current Topics in Language and Literature Nataša Bakić-Mirić, 2019-03-25 This volume brings together 15 peer reviewed papers which discuss numerous current topics in language and literature It synthesizes various contemporary practical topics in post secondary education written by active researchers and practitioners in their respective areas By using research methods such as mixed methods case studies discourse analysis grounded theory and the repertory grid the contributors offer insights into the ways in which higher education continuously changes and evolves to face constant challenges resulting from new instructional practices Taking this into consideration this book will help educators researchers and students to keep up with these changes and to stay aware of contemporary issues relating to post secondary education Transatlantic German Studies Paul Michael Lützeler, Peter Höyng, 2018 The prominent scholar contributors to this volume share their experiences developing the field of US German Studies and their thoughts on literature and interdisciplinarity pluralism and diversity and transatlantic dialogue
