Studies In Arts Architecture:

Studies in Art, Architecture, and Design: Victorian and after Nikolaus Pevsner, 1908 Studies in Art, Architecture and Design Nikolaus Pevsner, 1968 The Routledge Companion to Criticality in Art, Architecture, and Design Chris Brisbin, Myra Thiessen, 2018-10-03 The Routledge Companion to Criticality in Art Architecture and Design presents an in depth exploration of criticism and criticality in theory and practice across the disciplines of art architecture and design Professional criticism is a vital part of understanding the cultural significance of designed objects and environments that we engage with on a daily basis yet there is evidence to show that this practice is changing This edited volume investigates how practitioners researchers educators and professionals engage with think about and value the practice of critique With contributions from a multi disciplinary authorship from nine countries the UK USA Australia India Netherlands Switzerland South Africa Belgium and Denmark this companion provides a wide range of leading perspectives evaluating the landscape of criticality and how it is being shaped by technological and social advances Illustrated with over 60 black and white images and structured into five sections The Routledge Companion to Criticality in Art Architecture and Design is a comprehensive volume for researchers educators and students exploring the changing role of criticism through interdisciplinary perspectives Felder's Comprehensive, 2005 Edition Nick Felder, 2005-07-14 Every industry has its standard professional directory advertising has its Black Book manufacturing its Thomas s Register except that is for architecture and design and construction While there are dozens of smaller directories each addressing a specific market niche none speak to all three industries in a comprehensive way And larger product directories like Sweets are advertising driven and therefore incomplete Felder s Comprehensive is the first pan industry guide of its kind and it is many times more comprehensive than the nearest competitor It is an annual desk reference directory and product source guide with more reference information than any other title currently available It contains thousands of listings of time sensitive and timeless reference information for anyone involved in the business or practice of architecture design design build construction interior design facility management and real estate development For example readers can find listings for more than 12 000 manufacturers of furnishings fixtures equipment and materials listed alphabetically and most importantly by product category Felder s also lists design competitions domestic and international trade shows trade publications and other media trade associations professional organizations and more Most sections are indexed and cross referenced for easy referral and identification Felder s is the first truly comprehensive reference guide of its kind for the A E C marketplace and is certain to become the industry standard Unsettling Canadian Art History Erin Morton, 2022-06-15 Bringing together fifteen scholars of art and culture Unsettling Canadian Art History addresses the visual and material culture of settler colonialism enslavement and racialized diasporas in the contested white settler state of Canada This collection offers new avenues for scholarship on art archives and creative practice by rethinking histories of Canadian colonialisms from Black Indigenous racialized feminist queer trans and Two Spirit perspectives Writing across many positionalities contributors offer chapters that disrupt colonial archives of art and culture excavating and reconstructing radical Black Indigenous and racialized diasporic creation and experience Exploring the racist frameworks that continue to erase histories of violence and resistance this book imagines the expansive possibilities of a decolonial future Unsettling Canadian Art History affirms the importance of collaborative conversations and work in the effort to unsettle scholarship in Canadian art and culture Studies in the Arts and Architecture University of Pennsylvania. Bicentennial Conference, Carl William Blegen, 1941 Wendat Women's Arts Annette W. de Stecher, 2022-05-15 For centuries women artists of the Wendat First Nation of Wendake in Quebec have created artworks of intricate design and complex meaning in moosehair and quill embroidery Their work records and transmits ancestral knowledge across generations of artists and remains a vibrant and important practice today Breaking new ground in Indigenous art histories Wendat Women's Arts is the first book to bring together a full history of the Wendat embroidery art form Annette de Stecher challenges the historical anonymity of Indigenous women artists by arguing for their central role in community history and ceremony Through their art these women played an important part in the diplomatic strategies that advanced the sovereignty of their nation work that was an extension of their position of authority in their families and clans Chiefs and community members wore finely embroidered attire as a brilliant focus of ceremonial events a tradition that continues today Women artists also supported their community economically as their embroidery was a souvenir of choice for European collectors In vibrant illustrations this book reconstructs the rich repertoire of Wendat embroidery now dispersed in collections throughout the world Wendat Women's Arts combines a depth of historical understanding with a keen knowledge of contemporary Wendat artists demonstrating that the story of Wendat women is one of cultural strength innovation resilience and success Thesaurus of ERIC Descriptors, 1977 Critical Animal Studies Dawne McCance, 2013-01-01 Comprehensive overview of key theoretical approaches and issues in the field

Perspectives on Research Assessment in Architecture, Music and the Arts Fredrik Nilsson, Halina Dunin-Woyseth, Nel Janssens, 2017-02-03 Research in the creative fields of architecture design music and the arts has experienced dynamic development for over two decades The research in these practice and arts based fields has become increasingly mature but has also led to various discussions on what constitutes doctoral proficiency in these fields The term doctorateness is often used when referring to the assessment of the production of doctoral research and the research competence of research students but in architecture and the arts the concept of doctorateness has not yet attained a clearly articulated definition The assessment of quality has been practiced by way of supervising mentoring and the evaluation of dissertations but much less discussed This book offers perspectives on how to qualify and assess research in architecture music and the arts It creates a broader arena for discussion on doctorateness by establishing a framework for its application to creative fields The book is grouped into three sections and includes contributions from international experts in the various fields working in Australia

Belgium Brazil Canada Norway Sweden Switzerland Spain the Netherlands and the UK The first section offers general frameworks for further conceptualising doctorateness in the fields in question It is followed by a section that describes and discusses various experiences concerns and visions on the production and assessment of doctoral research reporting from doctoral programmes in different stages of development The third section includes future oriented perspectives on knowledge building processes and asks how the ongoing profound changes in academia could influence the concept of quality in both doctoral process and product The book presents different perspectives on research assessment practices and developments of relevant criteria in the practice based and creative fields of architecture and the arts The contributions propose ways of framing this issue conceptually show the need for awareness of the specific context and tradition programmes develop and give proposals for various potential trajectories for the future
