University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Authors & titles University of California (System). Institute of Library Research, University of California, Berkeley, 1972      The Forest in Medieval German Literature Albrecht Classen, 2015-06-03 By pursuing an ecocritical reading The Forest in Medieval German Literature examines passages in medieval German texts where protagonists operated in the forest and found themselves either in conflictual situations or in refuge By probing the way the individual authors dealt with the forest illustrating how their characters fared in this sylvan space the role of the forest proved to be of supreme importance in understanding the fundamental relationship between humans and nature The medieval forest almost always introduced an epistemological challenge how to cope in life or how to find one's way in this natural maze By approaching these narratives through modern ecocritical issues that are paired with premodern perspectives we gain a solid and far reaching understanding of how medieval concepts can aid in a better understanding of human society and nature in its historical context This book revisits some of the best and lesser known examples of medieval German literature and the critical approach used here will allow us to recognize the importance of medieval literature for a profound reassessment of our modern existence with respect to our own forests      [The Bulletin of the University of Minnesota \[Announcements\]](#). University of Minnesota, 1926      The Cambridge History of German Literature Helen Watanabe-O'Kelly, 2000-06-12 This is the first book to describe German literary history up to the unification of Germany in 1990 It takes a fresh look at the main authors and movements and also asks what Germans in a given period were actually reading and writing what they would have seen at the local theatre or found in the local lending library it includes for example discussions of literature in Latin as well as in German eighteenth century letters and popular novels Nazi literature and radio plays and modern Swiss and Austrian literature A new prominence is given to writing by women Contributors all leading scholars in their field have re examined standard judgements in writing a history for our own times The book is designed for the general reader as well as the advanced student titles and quotations are translated and there is a comprehensive bibliography      Women, Activism and Social Change Maja Mikula, 2006-01-16 Throughout history women have participated in and sometimes initiated rebellions to defend the welfare of their family community class race or ethnic group This volume presents original research on women's activism in Asia Europe Australia and Latin America It explores how women have advanced social change and their influence on and response to existing transformations in society Using an interdisciplinary approach the authors examine women's activities and conditions in diverse social and political contexts from revolutionary societies to status quo societies to societies in decline With its primary focus on agency and social change this book deconstructs patriarchal discourses and unearths aspects of female agency in an array of cultural historical and geopolitical contexts Chapters on movements in China Japan Australia Croatia Russia and a range of other countries both contribute to our understanding of change in those societies and seek to locate women at the center of politically aware movements Although not exclusively a book about feminist activism this essential collection is motivated by the feminist desire to restore to history a range of women's experiences This book introduces new ways of thinking across boundaries identities and complexities in a still essentially patriarchal world It will be of great interest to students and researchers in the fields of gender studies activism and comparative politics
