Studies In Ibo Political Systems Chieftaincy And Politics In Four Niger States:

Studies in Ibo Political Systems Ikenna Nzimiro, 2023-12-22 The Roots of Political Instability in Nigeria E.C. Ejiogu, 2016-02-24 The constant drumbeat of headlines about Darfur Zimbabwe Sudan Somalia as well as the other states in Africa that are beleaguered by political instability have made the causes of failed states and intra state political conflicts a major issue both academic and practical Using Harry Eckstein and Ted R Gurr s congruence consonance theoretical framework of regime classification E C Ejiogu examines the internal variations of society evident in the Nigerian state to explain why the country experiences political conflict and instability The first time this theoretical framework has been applied to an African country E C Ejiogu offers a balanced and interdisciplinary analysis of the evolution in the Nigerian political system and the role played by evolved social traits in society Exploring themes such as colonial rule and legacies economic development political authority and religion Ejiogu insists that it is critical to examine Africa s diverse nationalities in terms of their geography social economic and authority patterns as critical elements that are disregarded in accounts of their political development At a time when the question of state building in Africa is still unresolved this timely book is a major contribution to the literature on transition processes in African politics and is particularly relevant to scholars and policy makers wanting to grapple with the issues associated with Africa s political disorder and the other social problems it spawns

A Place in the World Axel Harneit-Sievers, 2002 Readership Historians and social anthropologists of Africa and India and all those interested in modern intellectual history in the interactions between orality and literacy and in local global and local state relationships BOOK JACKET

A Place in the World , 2021-10-01 Local histories written and published by non academic historians constitute a rapidly expanding genre in contemporary non Western societies However academic historians and anthropologists usually take little notice of them This volume takes a comparative look at local historical writing Thirteen case studies set in seven different countries of sub Saharan Africa India and Nepal examine the authors their books and their audiences From different perspectives they analyse the genre s intellectual roots its relationship to oral historical narratives and its relevance and impact in local and wider arenas Local histories it turns out pursue a variety of agendas They re construct local and communal identities affected by rapid social change Often they re write history as part of cultural and political struggles Openly or implicitly all of them place local communities on the map of the world at large

Women in Africa Nancy Hafkin, Edna G. Bay, 1976-06-01 This collection of papers all but one previously unpublished presents the results of recent field research in the disciplines of history political science anthropology sociology and economics The chief emphasis here is on change on viewing African women as agents of change from the first arrival of Europeans to the present and on seeking to change the perspective from which African women have been studied in the past The papers encompass settings as diverse as eighteenth century Senegal and contemporary Mozambique Politically and socially too the local settings are various including an Igbo village the marketplaces of Abidjan and Accra a development
