Studies In The Philosophy Of Paul Ricoeur:

Studies in the Philosophy of Paul Ricoeur Charles E. Reagan, 1984 Paul Ricoeur and the Task of Political Philosophy Gregory R. Johnson, Dan R. Stiver, 2013-01-01 This book offers a sustained engagement with the political philosophy of Paul Ricoeur and demonstrates both the significance of the political in his own thinking throughout his career and how his understanding of the political offers something valuable to current discussions of issues in political philosophy On Paul Ricoeur David Wood, 2002-11 A collection of essays including three pieces by Ricoeur himself examining this subject Ricoeur's study of the intertwining of time and narrative proposes and examines the possibility that narrative could remedy a fatal deficiency in any purely phenomenological approach Hermeneutic Phenomenology Don Ihde, 1971 Hermeneutic Phenomenology serves to introduce the philosophy of Paul Ricoeur and give new perspectives to the philosophy of language

Biblical Narrative in the Philosophy of Paul Ricoeur Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 1990-04-27 A critical account of Ricoeur's theory of narrative interpretation and its contribution to theology Hermeneutics Paul Ricoeur, 2013-02-04 Paul Ricoeur's contribution to the theory of interpretation or hermeneutics is considerable he ranks among the masters of this discipline alongside Schleiermacher Dilthey Heidegger and Gadamer In addition to major works like The Conflict of Interpretations he wrote many articles and shorter texts which deserve to be discovered and rediscovered These allow us to gain a deeper understanding of the development of his work over time and to appreciate the full range of his contribution Some of the texts examine the nature of metaphor while others guide the reader through the many challenges of the hermeneutic problem from the symbol to the text then to the text as action taking full account of the ethical implications Here one encounters Ricoeur's reflections on the future of hermeneutics and his abiding concern to explore the relations between hermeneutics and analytical philosophy Ricoeur's contribution to biblical hermeneutics has also been decisive Two masterful studies in this volume attest to Ricoeur's attempt to explore the relations between revelation and truth on the one hand and between myths of salvation and reason on the other This book the second volume of Ricoeur's writings and lectures brings together texts which appeared between 1972 and 2006 It is published under the auspices of Le Fonds Ricoeur Interpreting Technology Wessel Reijers, Alberto Romele, Mark Coeckelbergh, 2021-05-21 Paul Ricoeur has been one of the most influential and intellectually challenging philosophers of the last century and his work has contributed to a vast array of fields studies of language of history of ethics and politics However he has up until recently only had a minor impact on the philosophy of technology Interpreting Technology aims to put Ricoeur's work at the centre of contemporary philosophical thinking concerning technology It investigates his project of critical hermeneutics for rethinking established theories of technology the growing ethical and political impacts of technologies on the modern lifeworld and ways of analysing global sociotechnical systems such as the Internet Ricoeur's philosophy allows us to approach questions such as how could narrative theory enhance our understanding of technological mediation How can our technical practices be informed by the ethical aim of living the good life with and for others in just institutions And how does the emerging global media landscape shape our sense of self and our understanding of history These questions are more timely than ever considering the enormous impact technologies have on daily life in the 21st century on how we shape ourselves with health apps how we engage with one another through social media and how we act politically through digital platforms

A Passion for the Possible Brian Treanor, Henry Isaac Venema, 2010 Paul Ricoeur's entire philosophical project narrates a passion for the possible expressed in the hope that in spite of death closure and sedimentation life is opened by superabundance by how the world gives us much more than is possible Ricoeur's philosophical anthropology is a phenomenology of human capacity which gives onto the groundless ground of human being namely God Thus the story of the capable man beginning with original goodness held captive by a servile will and ending with the possibility of liberation and regeneration of the heart underpins his passion for the more than possible The essays in this volume trace the fluid movement between phenomenological and religious descriptions of the capable self that emerges across Ricoeur's oeuvre and establish points of connection for future developments that might draw inspiration from this body of thought Interdisciplinary Interpretation Kenneth A. Reynhout, 2013-06-20 The past fifty years has seen the emergence of an energetic dialogue between religion and the natural sciences that has contributed to a growing desire for interdisciplinarity among many constructive theologians However some have also resisted this trend in part because it seems that the price one must pay for such engagement is much too high Interdisciplinary work appears overly abstract and methodologically restrictive with little room for systematic theologians self consciously operating within a particular historical tradition In Interdisciplinary Interpretation Paul Ricoeur and the Hermeneutics of Theology and Science Kenneth A Reynhout seeks to address this concern by constructing an alternative understanding of interdisciplinary theology based on the hermeneutical thought of Paul Ricoeur generally recognized as one of the most interdisciplinary philosophers of the twentieth century Appealing to Ricoeur's view of interpretation as the dialectical process of understanding through explanation Reynhout argues that theology's engagement with the natural sciences is fundamentally hermeneutical in character As such interdisciplinary theologians can faithfully borrow meaning from the sciences through a process of interdisciplinary interpretation a process that can honestly attend to the legitimate challenges posed by the natural sciences without automatically requiring the evacuation of theological norms and convictions Reynhout's creative appropriation of Ricoeur's hermeneutics succeeds in providing a novel interdisciplinary vision not only for theology but also for interdisciplinary work in general

Paul Ricoeur's Renewal of Philosophical Anthropology Marc de Leeuw, 2021-12-27 In Paul Ricoeur's Renewal of Philosophical Anthropology Vulnerability Capability Justice Marc de Leeuw argues that Ricoeur's philosophical project integrates the anthropological tradition while renewing its importance as a hermeneutic anthropology of human capability Ricoeur posits that our cogito is neither its own absolute master nor fully transparent to itself inflicting a wound and fracturing the center of Cartesian self certainty But the Nietzschean disillusionment that ensues does not simply amount to a victorious anti cogito it opens another path towards self understanding In place of the direct route of intuition is found a more complex way forward one guided by interpretation The task of philosophical anthropology is to understand the human through its interpretative critical and imaginative ability as well as its capacity to act towards with and for others the interpretation of the world in front of us the interpretation of who we are and the interpretation of what it means to be among others as other selves coalesces in an anthropology that binds the question of the self to a moral ethical and political project one aiming to reflect our existence in common For Ricoeur the basic question of our subjective and normative standing demands a fundamental response a response toward our own otherness and to responsibilities triggered by the appeal of Others In both cases our vulnerability is inescapable we can never have an absolute self knowledge nor an absolute knowledge of Others Ricoeur turns this fundamental aporia into an affirmative philosophical anthropology of human action attestation and justice
