Studies On Canadian Literature:

Shifting the Ground of Canadian Literary Studies Smaro Kamboureli, Robert Zacharias, 2013-01-15 Shifting the Ground of Canadian Literary Studies is a collection of interdisciplinary essays that examine the various contexts political social and cultural that have shaped the study of Canadian literature and the role it plays in our understanding of the Canadian nation state The essays are tied together as instances of critical practices that reveal the relations and exchanges that take place between the categories of the literary and the nation as well as between the disciplinary sites of critical discourses and the porous boundaries of their methods They are concerned with the material effects of the imperial and colonial logics that have fashioned Canada as well as with the paradoxes ironies and contortions that abound in the general perception that Canada has progressed beyond its colonial construction Smaro Kamboureli's introduction demonstrates that these essays engage with the larger realm of human and social practices throne speeches book clubs policies of accommodation of cultural and religious differences Indigenous thought about justice and ethics to show that literary and critical work is inextricably related to the Canadian polity in light of transnational and global forces

Literary Research and Canadian Literature Gabriella Reznowski, 2011-02-07 Canada's rich literary heritage dominated by a multicultural and multilingual presence reflects the country's unique history and experience In addition an emerging body of new writers is redefining both the geographic and metaphorical boundaries of Canadian literature Coupled with the propagation of digital technologies Canada's burgeoning publishing industry presents unique challenges for both the introductory and seasoned literary researcher Literary Research and Canadian Literature Strategies and Sources provides researchers with the tools to navigate Canada's multifaceted literary scene This guide addresses the tools and best practices for selecting and evaluating print and electronic sources related to the extensive and varied literature of Canada Beginning with an overview of the strategies needed to conduct online research individual chapters examine general literary reference materials relevant online library catalogs including national and union library catalogs scholarly journals archival collections microform and digital collections periodicals literary magazines newspapers and reviews and Web and electronic resources Special topics discussed include little magazines scholarly gateways and cultural resources The guide culminates in a chapter that illustrates the application of the strategies explored to solve a research problem The strategies discussed within the guide are applicable to both canonical and lesser known authors therefore making this work relevant to anyone interested in researching Canadian literature

Studies on Canadian Literature Arnold E. Davidson, 1990 Trans.can.lit Smaro Kamboureli, 2007-11-08 Recognises the imperative to transfigure the study of Canadian literature to mirror the dramatic changes it has undergone since the 1960s and 70s The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole

Profiles in Canadian Literature Jeffrey M. Heath, 1991 Beyond "Understanding Canada" Melissa Tanti, Jeremy Haynes, Daniel Coleman, Lorraine York, 2017-04-21 The dismantling of Understanding Canada an international program eliminated by Canada's Conservative government in 2012 posed a tremendous potential setback for Canadianists Yet Canadian writers continue to be celebrated globally by popular and academic audiences alike Twenty scholars speak to the government's diplomatic and economic about face and its implications for representations of Canadian writing within and outside Canada's borders The contributors to this volume remind us of the obstacles facing transnational intellectual exchange but also salute scholars persistence despite these obstacles Beyond Understanding Canada is a timely trenchant volume for students and scholars of Canadian literature and anyone seeking to understand how Canadian literature circulates in a transnational world Contributors Michael A Bucknor Daniel Coleman Anne Collett Pilar Cuder Dom nguez Ana Mar a Fraile Marcos Jeremy Haynes Cristina Ivanovici Milena Kali anin Smaro Kamboureli Katalin K rt si Vesna Lopi i Bel n Mart n Lucas Claire Omhov re Lucia Otr salov Don Sparling Melissa Tanti Christl Verduyn Elizabeth Yeoman Lorraine York

Studies on Canadian Literature Arnold E. Davidson, 1990-01-01 Canadian Literature and Medicine Shane Neilson, 2023-09-08 Canadian Literature and Medicine breaks new ground by formulating a series of frameworks with which to read and interpret a national literature derived from the very fabric of that literature in this case Canadian Canadian literature is of particular interest because of its consideration of coloniality Indigeneity and coincident development alongside a nascent socialized medical system currently under threat from neoliberalism The first chapters of the book carefully track the development of Canada's socialized medical system as it manifests in the imaginations of the nation's poets and authors who depict care Reciprocal flows are investigated in which these poets and authors are quoted in policy documents The archive based methodology is sustained in subsequent chapters that rely upon a unique interdisciplinary mix of medical history philosophy of medicine medical policy theory inherent to the field of Canadian literature focusing in particular on the garrison mentality as a form of aesthetic protest and the feminist ethics of care and Indigenous ways of knowing
