

2.2.6 Sources for Narrative

- Museum artefacts
- The visit to the museum was an expedition into surveying the collections of artefacts, attires, memorabilia and dioramas depicting the tribal men and women going about their daily activities in the past which could be used in the narrative. Some examples of artefacts put on display that seemed to have an interesting backstory or cultural significance were as follows:
 - Seemingly ordinary stones that were almost spherical in shape and obsidian black with a title card that read "Prosperity stones: The person who owned one was said to get rich without working much."
 - An exhibit of indigenous community games that each tribe used to play.
 - A whole gallery of photographs taken during the war times and the portraits of people during those days.

Books

In order to create a narrative based on factual or credible information, the project will refer to the following literature to gather content for the narrative along with consultation from corresponding elders and individuals from Nagaland.

1. "On being a Naga" by Temsula Ao
2. "A terrible patriarchy" by Esterline Kuo
3. "Sumi Naga: The origin and migration of the Nagas" by Inai Jmom
4. "Studies on Naga Oral tradition" by Arungla Aue
5. "The Naga Saga" by Kaka Di Inlu
6. "Taboos, Myths and Legends" by Vashhouni Hilo and R. Chumben Ngulie

Studies On Theology And Naga Culture:

Studies on Theology and Naga Culture Takatemjen, 1998 Collection of various seminar papers presented by the author during the last fifteen years Confessing Christ in the Naga Context Bendangjungshi, 2011 In this book author Bendangjungshi brings into dialogue the three leading Northeast Indian tribal theologians Renty Keitzar K Thanzauva and Wati Longchar with the Western theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer who suffered martyrdom under the Nazi dictatorship in Germany Negotiating between Bonhoeffer's political approach and Naga cultural identity Bendangjungshi develops a liberating ecclesiology for Naga Christians who have been suffering under Indian military occupation since the withdrawal of the British colonizers from Nagaland Series ContactZone Explorations in Intercultural Theology Vol 8 Christianity in North East India Grace Laltlinzo, 2019-01-01 This book is the outcome of the study on A Critique of the Western missionaries approach and its subsequent effect on the Tribal Cultures of the North East India It is a comprehensive historical narration of the various missions of the western Christianity who came to the region and also critically examined the attitude and though process in coming to evangelised people of North east India The book also traces the history of the various church denominations in North East India and highlights the paradigm shifts in the history of Christian mission And also formulate a mutual co existence and relevant understanding by using various sociological theories as well as some of the missiological theories for cultural response to westernization Landscape, Culture, and Belonging Neeladri Bhattacharya, Joy L. K. Pachau, 2019-05-23 This collection of essays is an important contribution to the new literature on frontier studies and the historiography of Northeast India Moving away from an exclusive dependence on colonial ethnographies the authors build their arguments on a varied range of sources from buranjis to revenue records survey maps to explorers diaries and missionary papers to police files They question the givens of the categories through which the region is usually described and contest the stereotypes by which the people of the region are primitivized They explore the historical processes whereby the region was surveyed mapped understood represented politically governed economically refigured and historically constituted during the colonial period Though focused on the experience of Northeast India the volume also raises substantive questions about the idea of the frontier and the border the primitive and the modern and the tribal and the settled the local and the trans local Christianity in Northeast India Chongpongmeren Jamir, 2020-04-22 This book examines the distinctive formation of Christianity in Nagaland Northeast India since 1947 It argues that an understanding of the history of Christianity in the region can be found in its cultural milieu and the changing political social and religious environment In Nagaland almost 90 per cent of the population are Christians This book shows that segmentation as a cultural characteristic of Naga society inspired both unity and divisiveness in the Naga churches which subsequently shaped the beliefs and practices of the churches in the region Using the methodology of cultural history the author examines ecclesiastical events and suggests that the history of Christianity should be examined in the light of its interaction with its cultural context rather than as an isolated phenomenon The book demonstrates that the ethnic status which the Christian faith assumed the extent of its identification with the local culture and the scope of the mission of the Naga churches as key stakeholders in society offers a new angle on the history of Christianity in India This book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of South Asian history particularly those concerned with Northeast India and Christian history historiography cultural history history of Christianity in India and faith culture interface religious studies history and South Asian Studies Vocation in Christ Imliwabang Jamir, 2016-03-11 Karl Barth 1886 1968 as a young Swiss pastor in Safenwil struggled to make an organic connection between the newspaper contemporary sociopolitical events and the New Testament When he discovered a strange new world of God within the Bible God became the subject matter for renewing and transforming the world This discovery helped Barth to integrate the world into his interpretation of the Bible and also impacted his theology of Christian vocation as divine summons to God s special freedom and obedience Vocation in Christ examines the theology of vocation and reading Scripture among the Naga Christians in northeastern India in conversation with Barth s theology of vocation Social scientific research is employed on congregations and Bible study groups to explore how the Naga Christians understand vocation and Scripture in light of their sociopolitical and religious context This book serves as an introduction for Western readers of how vocation is understood from an Asian perspective and emphasizes the theme of vocation as Christian witness without accommodating to worldly values It readdresses Barth s theology of vocation which calls for a revitalization of Christian vocation in our contemporary situation The primary claim of this book is that vocation is God s calling to obedience and devotion to the love of God is reciprocal to the love of neighbor Ritual, Resistance, and Liberation Jin Young Choi, 2025-06-30 While ritual creates a shared and conventional world of human sociality and expresses and controls the meaning of experience it also functions to set boundaries and promote normativity This volume explores the intersections of ritual with mechanisms and forces of power such as patriarchy tradition colonialism authoritarianism and capitalism on the one hand and ritual s potential for resistance resilience and restoration on the other hand Can God Save My Village? Jangkhoham Haokip, 2014-08-14 The introduction of Christianity by missionaries in North East India without ignoring the positive contribution failed to provide a sound theological foundation for the people of this region in their quest for identity and liberation In this publication the author a native of the region investigates the struggle for identity among the tribal people of North East India and more particularly the Kuki people of Manipur Exploring the social cultural religious and political changes brought to the people of this region the book highlights their real struggle for justice and dignity Outlining aspects of the Kuki tradition as well as dialoguing with Dalit and tribal theology the author proposes possible contributions to a local theology that can help in shaping a new sense of identity for the tribal people of North East India Interpreting Contemporary Christianity Ogbu Kalu, Elaine Low, 2008-08-05 In this multidisciplinary interpretation of world Christianity and the changing shape of the global religious landscape scholars consider the complex dynamics shaping Christianity's recent expansion in all parts of the globe. They view the explanations of homogenization or American cultural influence as being necessarily limited and point to the far more varied intersections of external influence and indigenous appropriation. The geographical coverage and the voices from various corners of the globe exemplify the shift of Christianity's center of gravity away from the northern hemisphere. New voices, new methods and new perspectives emerge here.
