Studies Voltaire 18th Century Volume 36:

Human Nature, Cultural Diversity, and the French Enlightenment Henry Vyverberg, 1989-08-17 In this work Henry Vyverberg traces the evolution and consequences of a crucial idea in French Enlightenment thought the idea of human nature Human nature was commonly seen as a broadly universal unchanging entity though perhaps modifiable by geographical social and historical factors Enlightenment empiricism suggested a degree of cultural diversity that has often been underestimated in studies of the age Evidence here is drawn from Diderot's celebrated Encyclopedia and from a vast range of writing by such Enlightenment notables as Voltaire Rousseau and d'Holbach Vyverberg explains not only the age's undoubted fascination with uniformity in human nature but also its acknowledgment of significant limitations on that uniformity He shows that although the Enlightenment's historical sense was often blinkered by its notions of a uniform human nature there were also cracks in this concept that developed during the Enlightenment itself

Reassessing the Radical Enlightenment Steffen Ducheyne, 2017-02-21 Reassessing the Radical Enlightenment comprises fifteen new essays written by a team of international scholars The collection re-evaluates the characteristics meaning and impact of the Radical Enlightenment between 1660 and 1825 spanning England Ireland the Dutch Republic France Germany and the Americas In addition to dealing with canonical authors and celebrated texts such as Spinoza and his Tractus theologico-politicus the authors discuss many less well-known figures and debates from the period Divided into three parts this book considers the Radical Enlightenment movement as a whole including its defining features and characteristics and the history of the term itself Traces the origins and events of the Radical Enlightenment including in-depth analyses of key figures including Spinoza Toland Meslier and d'Holbach Examines the outcomes and consequences of the Radical Enlightenment in Europe and the Americas in the eighteenth century Chapters in this section examine later figures whose ideas can be traced to the Radical Enlightenment and examine the role of the period in the emergence of egalitarianism This collection of essays is the first stand-alone collection of studies in English on the Radical Enlightenment It is a timely and comprehensive overview of current research in the field which also presents new studies and research on the Radical Enlightenment

Evolutionism in Eighteenth-century French Thought Mary Efron Gregory, 2008 This book examines how eighteenth-century French theorists Maillet Montesquieu La Mettrie Buffon Maupertuis Diderot Rousseau and Voltaire addressed evolutionism Each thinker laid down a building block that would eventually open the door to the mutability of species and a departure from the long-held belief that the chain of beings is fixed This book describes how the philosophes established a triune relationship among contemporary scientific discoveries random creationism propelled by the motive and conscious properties of matter and the notion of the chain of being along with its corollaries plenitude and continuity Also addressed is the contemporary debate over whether apes could ever be taught to speak as well as the issue of race and the family of man

Orthodoxy and Heresy in Eighteenth-century Society Regina Hewitt, Pat Rogers, 2002 The essays in this volume use the concept of heresy to gain insight into the value of social order during the eighteenth century By applying the vocabulary of religion to behaviours that might more usually be studied as deviance the contributors can account for the complexity and vehemence of conflicts over right order played out in the literary artistic and political arenas of the age The essays examine a range of cultural encounters between orthodox and heterodox figures Visions of World Community Jens Bartelson, 2009-10 A philosophical and historical analysis of the idea of world community from the late Middle Ages to the present The French Enlightenment and its Others D. Harvey, 2012-08-06 This book explores the French Enlightenment's use of cross cultural comparisons particularly the figures of the Chinese mandarin and American and Polynesian savage to praise or critique aspects of European society and to draw general conclusions regarding human nature natural law and the rise and decline of civilizations L'Écriture est la peinture de la voix Gillian Pink, Thomas Wynn, 2024-11-15 L'écriture est la peinture de la voix honours and celebrates the inestimable contributions that Professor Nicholas Cronk has made to our understanding of the Enlightenment As director of the University of Oxford's Voltaire Foundation he has played a decisive role in eighteenth century studies In particular he has shaped our knowledge of Voltaire as a writer celebrity and era defining figure whose influence has continued to be felt through the centuries Comprising essays by a host of internationally eminent scholars this volume is a fitting tribute to the esteem and affection in which Nicholas Cronk is held as a colleague teacher and mentor These sixteen essays reflect his varied research interests exploring questions central to the eighteenth century such as the writing process justice revolution as well as the legacy of the Enlightenment and focussing on the central figure in Nicholas Cronk's research Voltaire In sections devoted to Voltaire's writing practices to his involvement in political literary and religious polemics and finally to his legacy the essays build on Nicholas Cronk's scholarship and editorial achievements opening up a new chapter in research on Voltaire This volume is complemented by an online collection of essays which speak to other topics central to Nicholas Cronk's interests such as authorial identities correspondence and aesthetics Visit the MLO site for the other half of this festschrift project <https://modernlanguagesopen.org/collections/lecriture-nicholas-cronk> Ideology and Social Science B. W. Head, 2012-12-06 This book attempts to present a detailed and critical account of the thought of Antoine Louis Claude Destutt de Tracy 1754-1836 Major importance has been placed on the analysis of his published writings Biographical details have been provided only to the extent necessary to elucidate the circumstances of the composition and publication of his writings in particular the intellectual and political currents in France during the Revolutionary and Napoleonic periods The book has three main themes The first is Tracy's philosophy of ideology which was concerned to clarify concepts and provide guarantees of reliable knowledge The second is Tracy's attempt to elaborate a science of social organisation la science sociale whose objective was to recommend institutions and policies which could maximise social happiness The third theme is Tracy's development of liberal and utilitarian approaches to the fields of politics economics and education This study began life as a doctoral dissertation at the London School of Economics and Political Science I am grateful for the guidance of my supervisor Professor Ken Minogue and for helpful comments from Professor Maurice Cranston Professor Jack Lively and Dr John Hooper

The Quest for the True Figure of the Earth Michael Rand Hoare, 2017-09-08 In the 1730s two expeditions set out from Paris on extraordinary journeys the first was destined for the equatorial region of Peru the second headed north towards the Arctic Circle Although the eighteenth century witnessed numerous such adventures these expeditions were different Rather than seeking new lands to conquer or mineral wealth to exploit their primary objectives were scientific to determine the Earth's precise shape by measuring the variation of a degree of latitude at points separated as nearly as possible by a whole quadrant of the globe between Equator and North Pole Although such information had consequences for navigation and cartography the motivation was not simply utilitarian Rather it was one theme among many in an intellectual revolution in which advances in mathematics paralleled philosophical strife and reputations of the living and the dead stood to be elevated or destroyed In particular the two expeditions hoped to prove the correctness of Isaac Newton's prediction that the Earth is not a perfect sphere but flattened at the poles In this study the Figure of the Earth controversy is for the first time comprehensively explored in all its several dimensions It shows how a largely neglected episode of European science that produced no spectacular process or artefact beyond a relatively minor improvement in maps nevertheless represents an almost unique combination of theoretical prediction and empirical method It also details the suffering of the two teams of scientists in very different extremes of climate whose sacrifices for the sake of knowledge rather than colonial gain caught the imagination of the literary world of the time

The Sum of All Heresies Frederick Quinn, 2008 Quinn traces the Western image of Islam from its earliest days to recent times It establishes four basic themes around which the image of Islam gravitates throughout history in this portrayal of Islam in literature art music and popular culture
