Studies In Ancient American And European Art:

Studies in Ancient American and European Art George Kubler, 1985-01-01 Toward a Geography of Art Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann, 2004-03-14 Art history traditionally classifies works of art by country as well as period but often political borders and cultural boundaries are highly complex and fluid Questions of identity policy and exchange make it difficult to determine the place of art and often the art itself results from these conflicts of geography and culture Addressing an important approach to art history Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann's book offers essays that focus on the intricacies of accounting for the geographical dimension of art history during the early modern period in Europe Latin America and Asia Toward a Geography of Art presents a historical overview of these complexities debates contemporary concerns and completes its exploration with a diverse collection of case studies Employing the author's expertise in a variety of fields the book delves into critical issues such as transculturation of indigenous traditions mestizaje the artistic metropolis artistic diffusion transfer circulation subversion and center and periphery What results is a foundational study that establishes the geography of art as a subject and forces us to reconsider assumptions about the place of art that underlie the longstanding narratives of art history Visual Culture and Indigenous Agency in the Early Americas, 2021-10-11 This volume explores how visual arts functioned in the indigenous pre and post conquest New World as vehicles of social religious and political identity Twelve scholars in the field of visual arts examine indigenous artistic expressions in the American continent from the pre Hispanic age to the present The contributions offer new interpretations of materials objects and techniques based on a critical analysis of historical and iconographic sources and argue that indigenous agency in the continent has been primarily conceived and expressed in visual forms in spite of the textual epistemology imposed since the conquest Contributors are Miguel Arisa Mary Brown Ananda Cohen Aponte Elena FitzPatrick Sifford Alessia Frassani Jeremy James George Orlando Hernandez Ying Angela Herren Rajagopalan Keith Jordan Lorena Tezanos Toral Marcus B Burke and Lawrence Waldron Heart of Creation Andrea Joyce Stone, 2002 This accessible state of the art review of Mayan hieroglyphics and cosmology also serves as a tribute to one of the field's most noted pioneers The core of this book focuses on the current study of Mayan hieroglyphics as inspired by the recently deceased Mayanist Linda Schele As author or coauthor of more than 200 books or articles on the Maya Schele served as the chief disseminator of knowledge to the general public about this ancient Mesoamerican culture similar to the way in which Margaret Mead introduced anthropology and the people of Borneo to the English speaking world Twenty five contributors offer scholarly writings on subjects ranging from the ritual function of public space at the Olmec site and the gardens of the Great Goddess at Teotihuacan to the understanding of Jupiter in Maya astronomy and the meaning of the water throne of Quirigua Zoomorph P The workshops on Maya history and writing that Schele conducted in Guatemala and Mexico for the highland people modern descendants of the Mayan civilization are thoroughly addressed as is the phenomenon termed Maya mania the explosive growth of interest in Maya epigraphy iconography astronomy and cosmology

that Schele stimulated An appendix provides a bibliography of Schele's publications and a collection of Schele's written memories of the Rabbit Woman by some of her colleagues and students Of interest to professionals as well as generalists this collection will stand as a marker of the state of Mayan studies at the turn of the 21st century and as a tribute to the remarkable personality who guided a large part of that archaeological research for more than two decades

Time and Place Thomas Dacosta Kaufmann, 2017-11-22 Authors from Herodotus in antiquity to Vasari in the Renaissance related art and architecture to peoples, nations, regions, cities, and environments Already with Winckelmann and the origins of discussion of art history in the eighteenth century, geography was seen as a powerful determinant of art In the nineteenth century the perceived connection between nations or races and art flourished mainly because of the rise of nationalism Around 1900 the method of geographical analysis received a modern name: Kunstgeographie But the ideology of Blut und Boden associated with Nazism and related ideologies brought the geography of art into disrepute This book proposes to return anew to the approach of artistic geography which had been largely neglected from the Second World War until recently and to reevaluate the possibilities it provides through a selection of case studies that discuss the connection between art and its place The introduction and first essay deal with the historiography of the geography of art Five essays take up specific questions ranging from France and the Low Countries to Mexico and China The final three essays consider contemporary and broader theoretical issues concerning art in time and place

Experimental Systems Michael Schwab, 2013 In the sciences the experimental approach has proved its worth in generating what subsequently requires understanding Can the emergent field of artistic research be inspired by recent thinking about the history and workings of science

From Lascaux to Brooklyn Paul Rand, 2017-11-03 Illustrating his ideas with examples of his own stunning graphic work as well as an eclectic collection of masterpieces Rand discusses such topics as the relation between art and business, the presentation of design ideas and sketches to prospective clients, the debate over typographic style and the aesthetics of combinatorial geometry as applied to the grid His book will engage and enlighten anyone interested in the practice or theory of graphic design

Mapping Latin America Jordana Dym, Karl Offen, 2011-09-28 57 studies of individual maps and the cultural environment that they spring from and exemplify, including one pre-Columbian map

The Mestizo Mind Serge Gruzinski, 2013-10-18 Mestizo, a person of mixed blood, specifically a person of mixed European and American Indian ancestry Serge Gruzinski, the renowned historian of Latin America, offers a brilliant original critique of colonization and globalization in The Mestizo Mind Looking at the fifteenth-century colonization of Latin America, Gruzinski documents the mélange that resulted: colonized mating with colonizers, Indians joining the Catholic Church and colonial government, and Amerindian visualizations of Jesus and Perseus These physical and cultural encounters created a new culture, a new individual, and a phenomenon we now call globalization Revealing globalization's early origins, Gruzinski then fast-forwards to the contemporary mélange seen in the films of Peter Greenaway and Wong Kar Wai to argue that over 500 years of intermingling has produced the mestizo mind, a state of mixed thinking that we all possess A masterful alchemy of history anthropology philosophy and visual analysis The Mestizo Mind definitively conceptualizes the clash of civilizations in the style of Homi Bhabha Gayatri Spivak and Anne McClintock
