Studies In Ideology Essays On Culture And Subjectivity:

Studies in Ideology J. M. Beach, 2005 In Studies in Ideology poet and theorist J M Beach delivers a comprehensive analysis of the history and theory of ideology The narrow concept of ideology has traditionally been lodged in the domain of Marxist political theory but Beach reaches past Marxism to focus on the wide definition of ideology which can be basically summarized as all theory is ideological Beach strays from the Marxist totalizing and determinist narratives to deliver a discussion of ideology as process which takes its lead from Gramsci and analyzes the intricate and complicated mechanisms of individual subject formation in relation to dominant dominating social modes of meaning productions Beach offers his theory of ideology in conjunction with an extensive reading of history and contemporary affairs and ends the book with a brief biographical sketch of his own intellectual maturation which is imbedded within a daring and timely critique of Christianity Publisher's website

María Zambrano Beatriz Caballero Rodríguez, 2017-02-01 María Zambrano is widely regarded as one of the most original Spanish thinkers of the twentieth century Her biggest contribution to intellectual history is without doubt her poetic reason and unique attempt to overcome the limiting coordinates of the framework of rationality established by the Enlightenment Having spent forty five years in exile the relevance of this Spanish Republican thinker has only been recognised in recent decades and this monograph explores the political dimension present throughout her work to argue for it as one of her key motivations This monograph therefore reveals the political dimension inherent to Zambrano's proposal for an alternative rationality that is poetic reason and to this end this book questions existing assumptions regarding Zambrano's thought and reframes it with its emphasis on the pivotal role of reason

Subjectivities Regenia Gagnier, 1991-02-14 This comparative analysis draws on working class autobiography public and boarding school memoirs and the canonical autobiographies by women and men in the United Kingdom to define subjectivity and value within social class and gender in nineteenth and early twentieth century Britain Gagnier reconsiders traditional distinctions between mind and body private desire and public good aesthetics and utility and fact and value in the context of everyday life

The Symbolic, the Sublime, and Slavoj Žižek's Theory of Film M. Flisfeder, 2016-01-20 Returning to questions about ideology and subjectivity Flisfeder argues that Slavoj Žižek's theory of film aims to re-politicize film studies and film theory bringing cinema into the fold of twenty-first century politics

Crusoe's Footprints Patrick Brantlinger, 2013-02-01 Cultural Studies has emerged in British and American higher education as a movement that challenges the traditional humanities and social science disciplines Influenced by the New Left feminism and poststructuralist literary theory cultural studies seeks to analyze everyday life and the social construction of subjectivities Crusoe's Footprints encompasses the movement of many colleges and universities in the 1960s towards such interdisciplinary and radical programs as American Studies Women's Studies and Afro American Studies Brantlinger also examines the role of feminist criticism which has been particularly crucial in both Britain and the U.S.

The Subjectivity Of Participation M. Nissen, 2012-02-17 What is a we a collective and how can we use such communal self knowledge to help people This book is about collectivity participation and subjectivity and about the social theories that may help us understand these matters It also seeks to learn from the innovative practices and ideas of a community of social youth workers in Copenhagen between 1987 and 2003 who developed a pedagogy through creating collectives and mobilizing young people as participants The theoretical and practical traditions are combined in a unique methodology viewing research as a contentious modeling of prototypical practices Through this dialogue it develops an original trans disciplinary critical theory and practice of collective subjectivity for which the ongoing construction and overcoming of common sense or ideology is central It also points to ways of relating discourse with agency and fertilizing insights from interactionism and ideology theories in a cultural historical framework

Overcoming the Two Cultures Richard E. Lee Jr, Immanuel Wallerstein, 2015-12-03 This book tells the story of how the very idea of two cultures the so called divorce between science and the humanities was a creation of the modern world system The contributors working from a common research framework trace the divorce of facts and values as part of the transition from feudalism to capitalism This led to a polarization between universalist science and the particularist humanities and finally to the creation of the social sciences as an uneasy intermediary in this epistemological debate The book addresses the contemporary attempts to overcome the division between the two cultures that emerge from science feminism race and ethnic studies cultural studies and ecology ending with an analysis of the culture wars and the science wars Contributors Volkan Aytar Ayşe Betül Celik Mauro Di Meglio Mark Frezzo Ho-fung Hung Biray Kolloupğlu K3
