Sympathy and the State in the Romantic Era Robert Mitchell, 2013-10-31 Sympathy and the State in the Romantic Era explores a fascinating connection between two seemingly unrelated Romantic era discourses outlining the extent to which eighteenth and early nineteenth century theories of sympathy were generated by crises of state

finance Through readings of authors such as David Hume Adam Smith William Wordsworth and P B Shelley this volume establishes the ways in which crises of state finance encouraged the development of theories of sympathy capable of accounting for both the fact of social systems as well as the modes of emotional communication by means of which such systems bound citizens to one another Employing a methodology that draws on the systems theory of Niklas Luhmann Michel Serres and Giovanni Arrighi as well as Gilles Deleuze s theories of time and affect this book argues that eighteenth and early nineteenth century philosophies of sympathy emerged as responses to financial crises Individual chapters focus on specific texts by David Hume Adam Smith Jean Jacques Rousseau Ann Yearsley William Wordsworth and P B Shelley but Mitchell also draws on periodicals pamphlets and parliamentary hearings to make the argument that Romantic era theories of sympathy developed new discourses about social systems intended both to explain as well as contain the often disruptive effects of state finance and speculation

Studies on Voltaire and the eighteenth century Theodore Besterman,1974 Rococo Fiction in France, 1600-1715 Allison Stedman,2013 Rococo Fiction in France reconfigures the history of the long eighteenth century by revealing the rococo as a literary phenomenon that characterized a range of experimental texts from the end of the French Renaissance to the eve of the French Revolution Tracing the literary rococo s evolution from the late 1500s to the early 1700s and exploring its radicalization during the 1670s 80s and 90s Allison Stedman unearths the seventeenth century rococo s counter vision for the trajectory of the French monarchy and the dawn of the French Enlightenment The first part of the study investigates the relationship between Montaigne s philosophy of literary production and those of early seventeenth century table talk novelists libertine writers and playwrights involved in the quarrel over Corneille s play Le Cid She thus establishes the existence of a rococo philosophy of literary production whose goal was to innovate to bring pleasure and to create communities The second part of the study explores the impact that the Duchess de Montpensier s literary portrait galleries Jean Donneau de Vis s periodical the Mercure Galant and other forms of rococo literary production by such authors as Charles Sorel Alcide de Saint Maurice J N de Parvial and Jean de Pr chac had in the creation of a textually mediated social sphere that served as the foundation of the publicly critical culture of the French Enlightenment The study concludes with an investigation of the influx of salon sociability into the textually mediated social sphere during the 1690s Stedman examines the role of interpolated literary fairy tales proverb plays and other rococo publication strategies in such late seventeenth century women writers as d Aulnoy Lh ritier Murat and Durand in transfiguring the salon from an exclusive social circle mediated by physical presence to an inclusive social diaspora mediated by texts Rococo Fiction in France challenges established views of early modern French literary history and discusses a range of little known works in a generous and engaging manner
