Taking Stock Sean B. Franzel,Ilinca Iurascu,Petra S. McGillen,2024-10-21

The volume examines the proliferation of inventorying models and practices as cultural techniques of knowledge organization and production during the long nineteenth century While inventories are still broadly treated as raw data and unprocessed source materials the book shows how they function as complex media formats intersecting and interfering with other material techniques to produce store distribute organize and process cultural information How do inventories work against and in dialogue with other media of collection storage and retrieval such as catalogs indexes bibliographies and archives what new media configurations do techniques of inventorying enable and how in turn are such techniques shaped by the media channels and formats they employ what is at stake in the critical effort of taking stock whether as commercial bureaucratic literary historiographical or scientific operations finally what do such operations tell us specifically about the production and circulation of knowledge in the German nineteenth century

The American Year Book Albert Bushnell Hart,1929 Philosophy of the Act and the Pragmatics of Fiction Tahir Wood,2021-06-02

This is a ground breaking work that offers a new explanation of the power and popularity of literary fictional texts It does this by explaining the multiple dimensions of any fictional text and why it is that fictional literature cannot be reduced to a subset of these dimensions This book offers an expansion of the field of pragmatics the philosophy of the act in which the three categories of fictional actors author character and reader can be given their due It achieves this by bringing together schools of thought that are too often kept apart Anglo American pragmatics and European philosophy Drawing on a range of thinkers from Charles Morris and John Searle to Friedrich Nietzsche M M Bakhtin and Georg Luk cs the book applies a unique framework to a range of modern fictional texts Key concepts here are ethical intention and the agon of authorship

The World's

Greatest Books — Volume 03 — Fiction Various Authors, 2015-12-27 The World's Greatest Books Volume 03 An enterprise such as THE WORLD'S GREATEST BOOKS is to be judged from two different standpoints It may be judged with respect to its specific achievement the material of which it consists or it may be judged with regard to its general utility in the scheme of literature to which it belongs In an age which is sometimes ironically called remarkable for its commercialism nothing has been more truly remarkable than the advancement in learning as well as in material progress and of all the instruments that have contributed to this end none has been more effective perhaps than the practical popularisation of literature In THE WORLD'S GREATEST BOOKS an attempt has been made to effect a compendium of the world's best literature in a form that shall be at once accessible to every one and still faithful to its originals or in other words it has been sought to allow the original author to tell his own story over again in his own language but in the shortest possible space However we are aware that even THE WORLD'S GREATEST BOOKS will not escape the criticism of a small class of people who will profess to object to this as to any kind of interference with an author's original in reply to which it can only be said that such objections are seldom if ever made in the true interests of learning or in a genuine spirit of inquiry and too often only proceed from a knowledge of books or love of them which goes no deeper than their title page The selections in THE WORLD'S GREATEST BOOKS have been collected and are alphabetically arranged in ten different divisions namely Fiction Lives and Letters History Religion Philosophy Economics Science Poetry and Drama Travel and Adventure and Miscellaneous Literature An important additional feature of the work is the brief yet highly critical biographical and bibliographical note which accompanies every author and every selection throughout the twenty volumes To this must be also added the not less important Introductions and other explanations written by experts which often accompany the selections in the text cardinal examples of which will be found in particular in the section of Religion of this work in the articles dealing with such subjects as the Book of the Dead Brahmanism Confucianism the Koran Talmud etc

Reclaiming the Author Lucille Kerr, 1992 The recent fiction of Spanish America has been widely acclaimed for its experimental and revolutionary qualities In Reclaiming the Author Lucille Kerr studies the sources of power of this newly emergent literature in her detailed examination of the critical concept of the author Kerr considers how Spanish American narratives raise questions about authorial identity and activity through the different figures of the author they propose These author figures she maintains both complement and contradict notions of authority that exist outside of the world of fiction By focusing on works by well known Spanish American authors Cortazar Donoso Fuentes Poniadowska Puig and Vargas Llosa Kerr shows how the Spanish Americans have formed a radical poetics of the author Her readings demonstrate how exemplary Spanish American texts such as Rayuela Terra nostra and El hablador call into question the author as a unitary or uniform and therefore unproblematical figure Individually and together Kerr's readings reclaim the author as a complex critical concept encompassing diverse conflicting even competitive roles
