Taking Sides Clashing Views On Controversial Environmental Issues Rev Ed:

Greening the College Curriculum Jonathan Collett, Stephen Karakashian, 2013-04-10 Greening the College Curriculum provides the tools college and university faculty need to meet personal and institutional goals for integrating environmental issues into the curriculum. Leading educators from a wide range of fields including anthropology, biology, economics, geography, history, literature, journalism, philosophy, political science, and religion describe their experience introducing environmental issues into their teaching. The book provides a rationale for including material on the environment in the teaching of the basic concepts of each discipline, guidelines for constructing a unit or a full course at the introductory level that makes use of environmental subjects, sample plans for upper level courses, a compendium of annotated resources, both print and nonprint. Contributors to the volume include David Orr, David G. Campbell, Lisa Naughton, Emily Young, John Opie, Holmes Rolston III, Michael E. Kraft, Steven Rockefeller, and others.

The Ecocriticism Reader Cheryll Glotfelty, Harold Fromm, 1996 This book is the first collection of its kind, an anthology of classic and cutting edge writings in the rapidly emerging field of literary ecology. Exploring the relationship between literature and the physical environment, literary ecology is the study of the ways that writing, from novels and folktales to U.S. government reports and corporate advertisements, both reflects and influences our interactions with the natural world.

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003

Literature of Place Melanie Louise Simo, 2005 In Literature of Place, Melanie Simo looks beyond crowded malls and boarded up storefronts on Main Street to our collective memory, finding answers to these questions in stories, novels, memoirs, poetry, essays, diaries, travel writing, and nature writing that range in origin from New England and the Southern Highlands to Hawaii and in subject from little gardens to lost or reinhabited places in cities, mill towns, deserts, and woodlands. In her consideration of selected American works from 1890 to 1970, years that mark the closing of the Western frontier and later openings in space exploration, environmental protection, genetic engineering, and cyberspace, Simo uncovers a literature of place and the often surprising relationship of place to our daily lives.

Ethical Issues in Behavioral Research Allan J. Kimmel, 2009-02-04 With concerns rising over the ethical dimensions of behavioral research and the developments in ethical codification and the research review process, Ethical Issues in Behavioral Research looks at the research community's response to the ethical challenges that arise in the application of research approaches. Focuses on ethical and legal aspects of participant research on the internet. Presents a practical framework for ethical decision making. Discusses the revised ethical principles and code of conduct of the American Psychological Association. A new chapter detailing ethical issues in marketing and opinion research, including a contrast of market and academic research and a summary of the author's research comparing ethical trends in psychology and marketing fields. Offers in-depth coverage of recent ethical developments outside of the United States, including an update of the survey of the international codes of ethics and recommendations for avoiding ethical pitfalls encountered in cross-national research. Includes a list of useful internet links devoted to ethical issues in
