Taking Stock Gerald H. Jones, 1986-08-01 Annual American Exhibition [of] Paintings and Sculpture Art Institute Plaster Casts in the Life and Art of Seventeenth-Century Dutch Painters Isabella Lores-Chavez, 2025-08-20 In the early modern Dutch Republic plaster casts offered artists a way to overcome limitations of space and time and to define themselves This book presents the first comprehensive account of the impact of plaster casts on the artistic practice intellectual endeavors and social status of seventeenth century Dutch painters These modest objects were in fact real works of sculpture incorporated into a variety of compositions where they signalled an artist s ambitions and technical virtuosity Marginalized in the history of Dutch art plaster casts lie at the center of this study s novel interpretations of paintings and drawings paired with period sources The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art .1883 "Patricia Johanson and the Re-Invention of Public Environmental Art, 1958?010 " Xin Wu,2017-07-05 Impeccably researched and richly detailed this book addresses the issue of translation between visual arts and landscape design in the 50 more years career of Patricia Johanson an important artist in the second half of the twentieth century Examining the artist s search for an art of the real as a member of the post World War II New York art world and how such pursuit has led her from painting and sculpture to public garden and environmental art Xin Wu argues for the significance of the process of art creation challenging the centrality of art objects This book is an insightful study to confront a crucial question in the history of art through the work of a contemporary artist It therefore converses with art historians and critics alike as well as advanced readers of twentieth century art Following Johanson's artistic development from its formation in the 1960s American art scene to the very present day across the fields of art architecture garden civil engineering and environmental aesthetics it investigates the process of creation in a transdisciplinary perspective and reveals a view of art as a domain of exploration of key issues for the contemporary world The artist's concept of nature is highlighted and particular impacts of Chinese aesthetics and thought unveiled Based on extensive analysis of unpublished private archives Xin Wu offers us the first ever comprehensive scholarly interpretation of Patricia Johanson's oeuvre including drawings paintings sculptures installations garden proposals and built and unbuilt projects in the United States Brazil Kenya and Korea Art and knowledge after 1900 James Fox, Vid Simoniti, 2023-12-12 This ground breaking new history of modern art explores the relationship between art and knowledge from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day Each chapter examines artistic responses to a particular discipline of knowledge from quantum theory and theosophy to cybernetics and ethnic futurisms. The authors argue that art s incursion into other intellectual disciplines is a defining characteristic of both modernism and postmodernism Throughout the volume poses a series of larger questions is art a source of knowledge If so what kind of knowledge And ultimately can it contribute to our understanding of the world in ways that thinkers from other fields should take seriously Patricia Johanson and the Re-invention of Public Environmental Art, 1958-2010 Xin Wu, 2013

Impeccably researched and richly detailed this book addresses the issue of translation between visual arts and landscape design in the 50 year career of American painter and environmental artist Patricia Johanson Exploring the artist s search for an art of the real as a member of the postwar New York art world it demonstrates that visual translation cannot be understood solely through the works of art instead attention must be paid to the process of creation This book is an insightful attempt to confront a crucial question in the history of art through the work of a contemporary artist

Salt Mines and

Castles, The Discovery and Restitution of Looted European Art Thomas Carr Howe, 2022-07-15 Excerpt From May 1945 until February 1946 I served as a Monuments Fine Arts and Archives Officer in Germany During the first four months of this assignment I was engaged in field work which included the recovery of looted works of art from such out of the way places as a monastery in Czechoslovakia a salt mine in Austria and a castle in Bavaria Later as Deputy Chief of the Monuments Fine Arts and Archives Section Office of Military Government U S Zone I participated in the restitution of recovered art treasures to the countries of rightful ownership This book is primarily an account of my own experiences in connection with these absorbing tasks but I have also chronicled the activities of a number of my fellow officers hoping thereby to provide the reader with a more comprehensive estimate of the work as a whole than the resum of my own duties could have afforded
