Tale Of The Mayors Son:

Tale of the Mayor's Son Glyn Maxwell,1990 A Poetry Book Society Choice Love now simple now sexual now bright and naive now dark and obsessive the comedy hypocrisy and horror of authority the absurdities of television stardom and advertising these are the themes By turns comic and satirical political and passionate rhapsodic and elegiac what makes this such rewarding reading is the range of talents he possesses and the energy and inventiveness he deploys in combining them A supple formalist whose shrewd control over metre stanza forms rhyme and half rhyme is impressive TLS The

Wounded Age and Eastern Tales Ferit Edgü,2023-01-10 One of Turkey's most celebrated writers explores themes of violence otherness and exile through a thrilling hybrid of poetry and prose that paints a vivid picture of Turkey's conflict torn lands In the two books paired here translated into English for the first time the great Turkish writer Ferit Edgü represents complex social and political realities with startling lyricism The Wounded Age features a newspaper reporter from Istanbul assigned to write about ethno national violence in the mountains of eastern Turkey Like the narrators in Eastern Tales he is a stranger in a region where a buried history the state's violence against Armenians Greeks and Assyrians continues uninterrupted with the subjugation of the Kurds Language in this place especially the language of outsiders cannot be trusted In the story Interview an old villager tells the narrator Make our photograph and adds Send us the pictures No need to write us letters The minimal tales Edgü tells are vivid pictures of life in the East a house in ruins an empty crib wolves howling in the hills and transcriptions of living voices The reporter in The Wounded Age has no illusions that his story will stop the bloodletting instead he goes east because he knows he must open his eyes and unstop his ears Tales of the Past, Present and the Future Robert Brunet,2025-04-11 The tales in this book were written between 1965 and 2023 They originated from a mind eager to create his own world The first three tales offer you a look into the past There's the adventures of a boy in love with the girl of his dreams Set in the Old West the author used the titles of forty nine western films to weave his story See if you can identify them The second tale is about the tragedy of a general also in the begone west who is motivated by nonsense currently demonstrated by one of our politicians The last is about a sheriff trying to retire with an unblemished record of integrity in law enforcement It is a hybrid western novella Part two presents three tales of the Present Committed by his daughter a senior finds conspiracy in a retirement community A mysterious child defies her creator's wishes And finally a disillusioned newspaper reporter finds decency in the Florida Everglades As for tales of the Future the author writes about puppets who through an Act of Congress have been made legal citizens of the United States Taiwan is invaded by mainland China A violent storm upends the racial strife And in conclusion a young man can't die until he loses his head Now won't you step into this author's mind and decide whether one hundred and forty six thousand plus words in his book proves him persistent or mad Love Tales of Ancient China X. L. Woo,2016-05-15 Digging into Chinese folktales Mr Woo tells us stories about falling in love in a world that is distant in time and place distinct in culture and expectations each

Shtetl Tales Eleanore Smith, 2023-01-20. This multi volume collection of stories takes place in the fictional shtetl of Patchentuch located somewhere in the backwater of Eastern Poland in the late nineteenth century. The stories tell of the lighthearted adventures and misadventures of the town's residents and they transcend the grim reality of shtetl life to a more light hearted place. My hope is that the tales will provide the same pleasure for the reader that I derived from creating them.
