Hayes, 1999 Herman Melville's reputation as a great writer has gradually evolved throughout the 20th century Tempered by studies that emphasize the Western literary tradition literary appreciation for Melville's use of folklore has been slow in developing This study focuses on Melville's immersion with and borrowing from oral traditions both music and narrative tall tale humour nautical folklore superstition and legend The book also acts as a general introduction to Melville's work Such Men As These David Sears, 2010-05 In 1951 James Michener went to Korea to report on a little known aspect of America's stalemated war navy aviators His research inspired novel about these pilots became an overnight bestseller and perhaps the most widely read book ever written about aerial combat Using Michener's notes author David Sears tracked down the actual pilots to tell their riveting true life stories From the icy windswept decks of aircraft carriers they penetrated treacherous mountain terrain to strike heavily defended dams bridges and tunnels where well entrenched Communist anti aircraft gunners waited to shoot them down Many of these men became air combat legends and one Neil Armstrong the first astronaut to walk on the moon Such Men As These brims with action packed accounts of combat and unforgettable portraits of the pilots whose skill and sacrifice made epic history The Third History of Man John Bershof, MD, 2024-05-16 In the spirit of medieval writer Chaucer all human activity lies within the artist's scope the History of Man Series uses medicine as a jumping off point to explore precisely that all history all science all human activity since the beginning of time The jumping off style of writing takes the reader the listener into worlds unknown always returning to base only to jump off again History of Man are stories and tales of nearly everything The Third History of Man leaves bacteria in the rear view mirror and jumps to viruses and viral infections the cold the flu and COVID 19 not just another flu We ll cover epidemics pandemics and vaccines the pox infections and the Spock principle that the needs of the many outweigh the needs of the few or the one From COVID and the rise of Zoom we ll venture into the rise of Homo sapiens and the fall of Neanderthals the high sea adventures of Darwin aboard and the high sea adventures of dementia Our travels will take us along the Silk Road and Spice Trade another visit with the Age of Discovery when masted ships and European explorers went looking for that elusive sea route to the Far East and looking for gold annihilating huge swaths of indigenous Americans at every port of disembarkation not by the pointy end of a sword but by tiny infectious microbes We ll examine colonialism at its finest the sordid European history of imperialism and the land grab into Africa and the New World Americas
