Talk About Sing Out:

The Confessions of a Beachcomber E.J. Banfield, 2019-09-25 Reproduction of the original The Confessions of a Beachcomber by E J Banfield     Justice All Their Own Ted Egan, 2018-07-04 As punishment for murder Aboriginal justice often calls for a ceremonial spear thrust through the thigh In Arnhem Land in the Northern Territory of Australia the ceremony is called Makarrta The white justice system demands imprisonment for life Which justice should prevail What is fair Which is right Ted Egan well known bushman folklorist and media personality is uniquely placed to write this book His close association with Aboriginal people enabled him to interview participants in the events he sat down in the country where the incidents took place The product of forty years research this account of the killings the protests and the subsequent trials in Darwin in 1934 presents a thorough analysis of the motives and behaviour of the various participants It shows the disturbing and distressing consequences of the imposition of the British system of justice on people accustomed to their own predictable consistent legal system which itself is the product of a complex culture developed over thousands of years

The Confessions of a Beachcomber Edmund James Banfield, 1924     Sailor Talk Mary K. Bercaw Edwards, 2021-03-01 This book investigates the highly engaging topic of the literary and cultural significance of sailor talk The central argument is that sailor talk offers a way of rethinking the figure of the nineteenth century sailor and sailor writer whose language articulated the rich layered and complex culture of sailors in port and at sea From this argument many other compelling threads emerge including questions relating to the seafarer's multifaceted identity maritime labor questions of performativity the ship as theater the varied and multiple registers of sailor talk and the foundational role of maritime language in the lives and works of Herman Melville Joseph Conrad and Jack London The book also includes nods to James Fenimore Cooper Rudyard Kipling and Robert Louis Stevenson Meticulous scholarly research underpins the close readings of literary texts and the scrupulously detailed biographical accounts of three major sailor writers The author's own lived experience as a seafarer adds a refreshingly materialist dimension to the subtle literary readings The book represents a valuable addition to a growing scholarly and political interest in the sea and sea literature By taking the sailor's viewpoint and listening to sailors' voices the book also marks a clear intervention in this developing field     Yarrtji Sonja Peter, Pamela Locks, 1997 A biography of six Aboriginal women and their stories from the Great Sandy Desert region     Stories and Poems Rudyard Kipling, 2015-10-08 Hear and attend and listen Rudyard Kipling is a supreme master of the short story in English and a poet of brilliant gifts His energy and inventiveness poured themselves into every kind of tale from the bleakest of fables to the richest of comedies and he illuminated every aspect of human behaviour of which he was a fascinated and sometimes appalled observer This generous selection of stories and poems first published in the acclaimed Oxford Authors series covers the full range of Kipling's career from the youthful volumes that brought him fame as the chronicler of British India to the bittersweet fruits of age and bereavement in the aftermath of the First World War It includes stories such as The Man who would be King Mrs Bathurst and Mary Postgate and poems from Barrack Room Ballads and other collections In his introduction and notes Daniel Karlin addresses the controversial political engagement of Kipling's art and the sources of its imaginative power The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute ,1897 Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland ,1897 Songs and Specimens of the Language of New Georgia, Solomon Islands Boyle Townshend Somerville,1897 Journal - Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland,1897 National American Kennel Club Stud Book ,1913

The River of History Peter Farrugia,2005 The articles in this collection are dedicated to the proposition that human beings make history not just in the sense of being agents of change in the here and now but in the sense that we interpret appropriate and make use of the past for our own purposes in the future Covering topics that range from teaching history to the concept of property rights and the discipline of history in the television age these essays will radically alter the notion of how we make history It will show that we are never fully able to bend history to our will and that as we attempt to do so we are often shocked at the turns it takes despite our best efforts to shape it for future generations Macmillan's Magazine ,1890 The Quarterly Journal of Speech Education ,1918 Coming Through Genevieve W. Chandler,2008 Coming Through marks the first complete publication of these interviews with former slaves and their descendants living in the Waccamaw Neck region of South Carolina as collected by Genevieve W Chandler in the 1930s as part of the WPA Federal Writers Project Between 1936 and 1938 Chandler interviewed more than one hundred individuals in and around All Saints Parish a portion of Horry and Georgetown counties located between the Waccamaw River and the Atlantic Ocean Her subjects spoke freely with her on topics ranging from slave punishment to folk medicine from conditions in the Jim Crow South to the exploits of Brer Rabbit Coming Through consists primarily of interviews with forty nine Gullah speaking African American informants sharing life experiences with Chandler The subjects range in age from 9 year old George Kato Singleton to 104 year old Welcome Bees A biography of each subject accompanies the interviews Collectively these interviews form an intimate portrait of a fascinating subculture of the Carolina coast and the Sea Islands as shared with a remarkable woman who had special access to converse with the people of this traditionally insular world Moreover they provide an unparalleled firsthand account of the African American experience in South Carolina in the words of those who lived it BOOK JACKET
