Talk Talk Talk Shelley I. Salamensky, 2001 A look at talk in performance literature film media history technology psychoanalysis law and everyday life from an exhilarating range of perspectives Publisher description Talk, Talk, Talk S.I. Salamensky, 2013-10-14 Before media before the Internet there was talk itself Talk Talk Talk is an incisive exhilarating collection of essays by some of the best thinkers and talkers of our time These stellar contributors locate everyday chatter as the basis of a stunning range of artistic and cultural forms from Antigone's speech acts to Freud's talking cure from seventeenth century demon possession to the Marx Brothers immigrant talk literature theatre standup comedy ethnic talk technologized talk and much much more Contributors include Homi Bhabha Judith Butler Stanley Cavell Marjorie Garber Sherry Turkle Antigone, Interrupted Bonnie Honig, 2013-05-02 A new interpretation of Sophocles Antigone exploring the intertwined history of law politics gender and humanism Worked Up Selves E. Swan, 2009-11-27 Drawing upon current literature on the history and politics of therapeutic cultures and upon original qualitative research this book was produced in response to rapidly growing interest in the rise of new HRD practices such as coaching soft skills training and personal development training Female Performers in British and American Fiction Barbara Straumann, 2018-05-22 The female performer with a public voice constitutes a remarkably vibrant theme in British and American narratives of the long nineteenth century The tension between fictional female performers and other textual voices can be seen to refigure the cultural debate over the voice of women in aesthetically complex ways By focusing on singers actresses preachers and speakers this book traces and explores an important tradition of feminine articulation Drawing on critical approaches in literary studies gender studies and philosophy the book conceptualizes voice for the discussion of narrative texts Examining voice both as a thematic concern and as an aesthetic effect the individual chapters analyse how the actual articulation by female performers correlates with their cultural visibility and agency What this study foregrounds is how women characters succeed in making themselves heard even if their voices are silenced in the end Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts, Volume II James Flood, Shirley Brice Heath, Diane Lapp, 2015-04-22 The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts Volume II brings together state of the art research and practice on the evolving view of literacy as encompassing not only reading writing speaking and listening but also the multiple ways through which learners gain access to knowledge and skills It forefronts as central to literacy education the visual communicative and performative arts and the extent to which all of the technologies that have vastly expanded the meanings and uses of literacy originate and evolve through the skills and interests of the young A project of the International Reading Association published and distributed by Routledge Taylor Francis Visit <http://www.reading.org> for more information about International Reading Association books membership and other services Silence and Subject in Modern Literature U. Olsson, 2013-10-10 Why does interrogation silence its object and not make it speak Silence vs speech is a central issue in classical and modern literary works This book studies literary representations of the power relations in which we are forced to speak using a range of texts ranging from the modern crime novel via classics to avant garde plays Performing Capital R. Aitken,2007-10-01 This books reviews forms of capital popular finance and argues that it is important as a site at which capital is visible not as a macro structural reality but as a category itself which needs to be made and performed in the spaces where it does not already exist Culture is used to intervene into everyday spaces to develop capital there

Sound Media Lars Nyre,2009-06-02 Sound Media considers how music recording radio broadcasting and muzak influence people s daily lives and introduces the many and varied creative techniques that have developed in music and journalism throughout the twentieth century Lars Nyre starts with the contemporary cultures of sound media and works back to the archaic soundscapes of the 1870s The first part of the book devotes five chapters to contemporary digital media and presents the internet the personal computer digital radio news and talk and various types of loudspeaker media muzak DJ ing clubbing and PA systems The second part examines the historical accumulation of techniques and sounds in sound media and presents multitrack music in the 1960s the golden age of radio in the 1950s and back to the 1930s microphone recording of music in the 1930s the experimental phase of wireless radio in the 1910s and 1900s and the invention of the gramophone and phonograph in the late nineteenth century Sound Media includes a soundtrack on downloadable resources with thirty six examples from broadcasting and music recording in Europe and the USA from Edith Piaf to Sarah Cox and is richly illustrated with figures timelines and technical drawings

Informal Learning in Youth Work Janet R Batsleer,2008-05-21 Informal Learning in Youth Work offers fresh perspectives on all aspects of informal education in the youth work setting Designed to develop the reader s knowledge and skills this comprehensive textbook explores key issues such as communication power relations ethics gender exclusion sexuality race discrimination and social class The author places particular emphasis on conversation as a key means of promoting informal learning and engaging effectively with young people Other key features include case studies that illustrate the application of theory to real life practice an emphasis on critical reflection including reflective questions an easily accessible style with key terms and tips for further reading a four part structure guiding the reader through different stages of conversations and relationships in informal education Informal Learning in Youth Work provides a unique combination of theoretical analysis and practice tips Satisfying training and course requirements in the area it will be essential reading for all students on youth and community work courses as well as those in allied fields such as education and social work It will also be a valuable reference for practitioners working with young people on a daily basis The Tenth Muse Laura Marcus,2010-08-12 The Tenth Muse explores writings on the cinema in the first decades of the twentieth century Laura Marcus examines the impact of cinema on early twentieth century literary and more broadly aesthetic and cultural consciousness by bringing together the study of the terms and strategies of early writings about film with literary engagement with cinema in the same period She gives a new understanding of the ways in which early writers about film reviewers critics theorists developed aesthetic categories to define and accommodate what was called the seventh art or the tenth muse and found discursive strategies adequate to the representation of the new art and technology of cinema with its unprecedented powers of movement In examining the writings of early film critics and commentators in tandem with those of more specifically literary figures including H G Wells and Virginia Woolf and in bringing literary texts into this field Laura Marcus provides a new account of relationships between cinema and literature Intertwining two major strands of research the exploration of early film criticism and theory and cinema s presence in literary texts The Tenth Muse shows how issues central to an understanding of cinema including questions of time repetition movement vision sound and silence are threaded through both kinds of writing and the ways in which discursive and fictional writings overlapped The movement that defined cinema was also perceived as a more fragile and unstable ephemerality that inhered at every level from the fleeting nature of the projected images to the vagaries of cinematic exhibition It was the anxiety over the mutability of the medium and its exhibition which from the 1920s onwards led to the establishment of such institutional spaces for cinema as the London based Film Society the new film journals and in the 1930s the first film archives The Tenth Muse explores the continuities between these sites of cinematic culture and the conceptual literary and philosophical understandings of the filmic medium

The Rhetoric of Oil in the Twenty-First Century Heather Graves,David Edward Beard,2019-04-05 This book examines mass communication and civic participation in the age of oil analyzing the rhetorical and discursive ways that governments and corporations shape public opinion and public policy and activists attempt to reframe public debates to resist corporate framing In the twenty first century oil has become a subject of civic deliberation Environmental concerns have intensified questions of indigenous rights have arisen and private and public investment in energy companies has become open to deliberation International contributors use local events as a starting point to explore larger issues associated with oil dependent societies and cultures This interdisciplinary collection synthesizes work in the energy humanities rhetorical studies and environmental studies to analyze the global discourse of oil from the start of the twentieth century into the era of transnational corporations of the 21st century This book will be a vital text for scholars in communication studies the energy humanities and in environmental studies Case studies are framed accessibly and the theoretical lenses are accessible across disciplines making it ideal for a post graduate and advanced undergraduate audience in these fields
