International Railway Dale W. Jones,2019 The last half of the 19th century was typified by tycoons and shrewd railroad barons A key figure in the development of the Spokane International Railway was James Jerome Hill or simply Jim Hill Spokane businessmen regarded Hill as a tyrant and considered his Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroads unwelcome monopolies in Northeast Washington and the Idaho Panhandle In 1905 Daniel Chase D C Corbin broke the Hill lines stronghold by forming the Spokane International Railway as a 140 mile rail line from Spokane Washington to Eastport Idaho to interchange traffic from the Canadian border to the Pacific Today the route continues to be profitable under Union Pacific Railroad ownership with commodities shipped to Western markets via the Canadian Pacific Railway This book shares the story of the Spokane International Railway and traces its international and local connections with every major railroad in the Pacific Northwest

The Black Man Who Refused to Fail Cora Burns Forcell,2024-07-14 Follow the development of a teenage gas station attendant from rural southern Louisiana to flights around the world By age seventeen he was a skilled mechanic While in the US military he accomplished amazing things He restored a B 29 Bomber that flew 105 missions in the Korean War invented a boiler system hot water shower system was a crew chief for maintaining B 52 Bombers and saved three B 57s and human lives Read about a man who was in a school system that thought knowing how to count to one hundred was all he needed to know about numbers Everything he did was in loyalty to the United States military He also tried to improve himself and the military as much as he could It has been a sincere pleasure to write this book It has been awesome to tell the story of my uncle Chief Master Sergeant George E Dixon Retired I came away with a sense of pride understanding and a closer alliance to him and his life I hope you enjoy reading his biography as much as I enjoyed researching and writing the story His mother played an important role in his life She supported him from the valleys to the mountaintops of his life His dad also shaped his life in many ways His love for the outdoors fishing and hunting were instilled in him by his dad
