The Place Of Poetry Two Centuries Of An Art In Crisis:

The Place of Poetry Christopher Clausen, 2021-10-21 Since the end of the eighteenth century Christopher Clausen asserts poetry has steadily declined in cultural status in the English speaking world yielding its former place as a bearer of truth to the advancing sciences As the position of poetry was more and more threatened its defenders made ever higher claims for its importance even maintaining for a time that it would take the place of religion But though the Romantics brought about a sustained revival of serious poetry for a broad audience the audience began to dwindle toward the end of the nineteenth century and the decline accelerated as the twentieth century advanced Though some of the cultural changes responsible for this retreat were beyond the control of poets a society in which many people find their chief security and sense of meaning through the possession of certain objects will produce great advertising not great poetry Clausen finds in this situation evidence of an abdication among artists Because modernist poets and their successors abandoned some indispensable principles he believes serious contemporary poetry now has virtually no audience outside of English departments Yet the need for poetry is not less in an era like ours and the opportunities that the end of the twentieth century offers to poetry will not become fully apparent unless and until poets take advantage of them

The Imaginative World of Alexander Pope Leopold Damrosch Jr., 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1987 Literary Education and Other Essays Joseph Epstein, 2014-06-01 Who invented the personal essay That is hard to say The ancient Roman philosopher and cynical power broker Seneca The 16th century French philosopher Montaigne certainly brought it to a peak of perfection There were many 19th century masters not so many after that Who is the greatest living essayist writing in English That requires no debate at all It is unquestionably Joseph Epstein He is not only the best living essayist he is right up there in the company of Seneca and Montaigne but one of our own living in our era and dealing with our pleasures and travails Epstein is penetrating He is witty He has a magic touch with words that hard to define but immediately recognizable quality called style Above all he is impossible to put down Epstein reads omnivorously and brings us the best of what he reads passages that we would never have found on our own How easy it is today in the digital age drowning in emails and other ephemera to forget the simple delight of reading for no intended purpose Like any master essayist however this one brings us more than the shared experience of a lifetime of reading He brings us himself alternately scolding and charming sparkling and deep buoyant and sad zany and wise rebellious and conservative bookworm and sports fan clever and everyman debunker and preservationist deep into high culture deep into low culture curious fresh and settled in his ways This is the friend we all wish we could have the ideal humane companion who is completely comfortable in his own human skin Like Plutarch he gives us life teaching by example but with a wry smile and such a sure hand that we hardly notice the instruction It is pure pleasure

Culture of Hope Frederick Turner, 2007-09-12 Turner indicts both Left and Right for creating a cultural establishment that is philosophically empty and esthetically corrupt

Shakespeare's Twenty-First Century Economics Frederick Turner, 1999-09-23 I love you according to my bond says Cordelia to her father in King Lear As the play turns out Cordelia proves to be an exemplary and loving daughter A bond is both a legal or financial obligation and a connection of mutual love How are these things connected In As You Like It Shakespeare describes marriage as a blessed bond of board and bed the emotional religious and sexual sides of marriage cannot be detached from its status as a legal and economic contract These examples are the pith of Frederick Turner's fascinating new book Based on the proven maxim that money makes the world go round this engaging study draws from Shakespeare's texts to present a lexicon of common words as well as a variety of familiar familial and cultural situations in an economic context Making constant recourse to well known material from Shakespeare's plays Turner demonstrates that the terms of money and value permeate our minds and lives even in our most mundane moments His book offers a new humane evolutionary economics that fully expresses the moral spiritual and aesthetic relationships among persons and between humans and nature Playful and incisive Turner's book offers a way to engage the wisdom of Shakespeare in everyday life in a trenchant prose that is accessible to lovers of Shakespeare at all levels

After the Death of Literature Richard B. Schwartz, 1997 Schwartz speculates that Johnson who revered hard facts a wide cultural base and common sense would have exhibited scant patience with the heavily academic approaches currently favored in the study of literature He considers it probable that the combatants in the early struggles of the culture wars are losing energy and that in the wake of Alvin Kernan's declaration of the death of literature new battlegrounds are developing Ironically admiring the orchestration and staging of battles old and new superb he calls them he characterizes the entire culture war as a battle between straw men carefully constructed by the combatants to sustain a pattern of polarization that could be exploited to provide continuing professional advancement

Charles Darwin and the Church of Wordsworth Robert M. Ryan, 2016-02-12 Charles Darwin and the Church of William Wordsworth is a study of the cultural connections between two of the nineteenth century's most influential figures Charles Darwin and William Wordsworth When Darwin presented On the Origin of Species his reading public's affective response to the natural world had already been profoundly influenced by William Wordsworth Wordsworth presented nature as benign harmonious a source of moral inspiration and spiritual blessing and a medium through which one might enter into communion with the Divine Long after his death he continued to be revered throughout the English speaking world not only as a great poet but as a theologian with a broader following than any prelate and an appeal that transcended or ignored sectarian differences For believers and sceptics alike Wordsworth's poetry offered a readily accessible and intellectually respectable counterweight to Darwin's vision of a material universe evolving by fixed laws in which Divinity played no discernible role and where concepts like beauty and harmony were material conditions to be explained in scientific terms Wordsworth's theology of nature became for many readers a more effective counterforce to Darwin's ideas than Biblical orthodoxy but it also provided an enriching context for the reception of evolutionary theory aiding theists in their effort to reach an accommodation with the new science As the nineteenth century's two most prominent theoreticians of nature's life Wordsworth and Darwin competed for attention among those seeking to understand humanity's relationship with the natural world and their disciples engaged in a productive mutually transformative dialogue in which the poet's cultural authority influenced the way Darwin was received and Darwinian science adjusted interpretation and evaluation of the poetry Charles Darwin and the Church of William Wordsworth explores the broad cultural relationship between Wordsworth Darwin and their disciples contextualising them within wider discussions about the relationship between religion and science in the nineteenth century Department of the Interior and related agencies appropriations for 1984 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of the Interior and Related Agencies, 1983
