The Plain Talk Of The Dead:

The Plain Talk of the Dead Lawrence R. Smith, 1988 Plain Talk, 1927 Talking to the Dead Barbara Weisberg, 2009-10-13 Barbara Weisberg's Talking to the Dead blends biography and social history in this revelatory story of the family responsible for the rise of Spiritualism. A fascinating story of spirits and conjurors, skeptics and converts in the second half of nineteenth century America viewed through the lives of Kate and Maggie Fox, the sisters whose purported communication with the dead gave rise to the Spiritualism movement and whose recanting forty years later is still shrouded in mystery. In March of 1848 Kate and Maggie Fox, sisters aged eleven and fourteen, anxiously reported to a neighbor that they had been hearing strange unidentified sounds in their house. From a sequence of knocks and rattles translated by the young girls as a voice from beyond, the Modern Spiritualism movement was born. Talking to the Dead follows the fascinating story of the two girls who were catapulted into an odd limelight after communicating with spirits that March night. Within a few years, tens of thousands of Americans were flocking to séances. An international movement followed. Yet thirty years after those first knocks, the sisters shocked the country by denying they had ever contacted spirits. Shortly after, the sisters once again changed their story and reaffirmed their belief in the spirit world. Weisberg traces not only the lives of the Fox sisters and their family, including their mysterious Svengali-like sister Leah, but also the social, religious, economic, and political climates that provided the breeding ground for the movement. While this is a thorough, compelling overview of a potent time in US history, it is also an incredible ghost story.

The State of the Blessed Dead Henry ALFORD (Dean of Canterbury.), 1869 Plain talks on familiar subjects Josiah Gilbert Holland, 1901 Justice Is Dead Jozef Demcak, 2011-02

Jozef Demcak, B.A. Graduated at University of Czechoslovakia with Academic Title Mgr. Magister. Witnessed first hand suffering of innocent citizens. Communist system brought to Czechoslovakia when his mom and dad were robbed of their small bakery. It wasn't hard to recognize cruelty of communist system when it was OK to rob by Government Officials and visiting the church could be used against you. In 1968 when Soviets invaded his homeland, Jozef escaped to Canada and became High School teacher. After more than 20 years, it looked that it was safe to visit mom and dad. It was too late for Jozef to find out that Slovaks are building democracy by old, corrupted communist creeps. Jozef was kidnapped by police, kept for ransom in government jail, was tortured. Piles of documents were fabricated, number of signatures forged, children abused, families destroyed, just to cover up illegal acts of corrupted Slovak police and other bastards in Slovak justice system to get finances from Jozef. Jozef is probably the most qualifying person in the world to understand what is going on in all communist and post communist jails because he was in one of them. He understands how brains of abusers work because he studied psychology and Marx-Lenin dogma. He had also grown up with some of the abusers. Most importantly, he survived torture on his own skin. All this knowledge and experience is wasted by Canadian Government as they do not want to hear about it. If they did, somebody could ask the question: Why didn't they try to stop abuse when it was taking place and why they are defending abusers now Jozef has written this story for only one reason He believes strongly that everybody should do something because TORTURE and ABUSE MUST STOP Plain Talk on John Manford George Gutzke, 1968
