Liberalism Versus Conservatism François B. Gérard,2000 Everyone eschews labels yet we all seem to possess them in the minds of legions of politicians marketers and even the ever peering government We are being targeted daily by flaming liberals left wing liberals right wing conservatives compassionate conservatives religious conservatives and liberals pinko liberals middle of the road liberals conservatives and liberals pinko liberals middle of the road liberals and conservatives and of course by neoconservatives and neoliberals The search is on for kindred souls the types who will open their wallets to support whatever it is the hucksters are peddling But what to these concepts mean and do their torchbearers grasp the underlying philosophies or do they care This bibliography lists over hundreds of entries under each category which are then indexed by title an author The Contribution of Natural Law Theory to Moral and Legal Debate Concerning Suicide,

Assisted Suicide, and Voluntary Euthanasia Craig Paterson,2001 Taking Rites Seriously Francis Beckwith,2015-11-18

This book is a critical look at how courts legal scholars and the academic culture mischaracterize and misunderstand religious beliefs Retrieving the Natural Law J. Daryl Charles,2008-04-14 J Daryl Charles argues that a traditional metaphysics of natural law lies at the heart of the present reconstructive project and that a revival in natural law thinking is of the highest priority for the Christian community as we contend in rather than abdicate the public square Nowhere is this more on display than in the realm of bioethics where the most basic moral questions human personhood human rights versus responsibilities the reality of moral evil the basis of civil society are being debated from publisher description The Truth

About Tolerance Brad Stetson,Joseph G. Conti,2005-02-28 Brad Stetson and Joseph G Conti explore the use and misuse of the value of tolerance in academic circles and popular media demonstrating that Christian conviction about religious truth provides the only secure basis for a tolerant society which promotes truth seeking Catholicism and Religious Freedom

Kenneth L. Grasso,Robert P. Hunt,2006-10-19 The late Pope John Paul II frequently invoked Dignitatis Humanae as one of the foundational documents of contemporary Church social teaching In this timely new edited collection Catholicism and Religious Freedom Contemporary Reflections on Vatican II s Declaration on Religious Liberty Kenneth L Grasso and Robert P

Hunt have assembled an impressive group of scholars to discuss the current meanings of one the Vatican's most important documents and its place in the Church. Dignitatis Humanae understands itself as bringing forth new things that are in harmony with the old. Today forty years after its publication the precise nature of these new things and their relationship to the old remain among the most important pieces of unfinished business confronting Catholic social thought. The theological issues brought forth in Dignitatis Humanae go to the heart of the contemporary debate about the nature, foundation and scope of religious liberty. Here the contributors to this volume give these considerations the serious and sustained attention they deserve.

Jacques Maritain and the Many Ways of Knowing Douglas A. Ollivant, 2002. Drawing on the writings of Jacques Maritain and by extension those of Thomas Aquinas the essays in this volume examine the effects of theories of knowledge on individuals, culture and entire schools of philosophical thought. The contributors challenge contemporary epistemologies which are largely based on writings of Descartes, Locke and Kant. They critique these theories internally and demonstrate their incompatibility with other goods such as liberty, human dignity and access to the transcendent. In stark contrast to modernity's dubious and fragmented opinions and belief systems Maritain in works like The Degrees of Knowledge and Creative Intuition in Art and Poetry proposed a theory of knowledge that permits real if limited knowledge of substances, wholes. Some contributors use these works as a springboard from which to examine aspects or applications of knowledge that Maritain left unexplored. Others challenge or question aspects of Maritain's analysis seeking to improve upon his work. Still others compare Maritain with other neo-Thomistic philosophers most notably Etienne Gilson, Alasdair MacIntyre and Pope John Paul II. Maritain's works on human knowledge and the implicit critique of modernity contained within provide an alternative for those seeking to engage the various deficiencies of the culture of death. These essays demonstrate the continuing relevance and timeliness of Maritain's thought.

Douglas A. Ollivant is assistant professor of politics at the United States Military Academy. Contributors: George Anastaplo, James Arraj, Joseph M. de Torre, Robert Delfino, Raymond Dennehy, John M. Dunaway, Robert Fallon, Desmond Fitzgerald, William J. Fossati, W. Matthews Grant, Catherine Green, James G. Hanink, Gregory J. Kerr, John F. X. Knasas, John F. Morris, Ralph Nelson, Douglas A. Ollivant, Matthew S. Pugh, Steven J. Schloeder, Christopher H. Toner, John G. Trapani Jr., Henk E. S. Woldring and Thomas F. Woods. This is a valuable collection of articles on an important individual who is still influencing contemporary political thought.

Politics for Christians Francis J. Beckwith, 2012-05-20. Politics is concerned with citizenship and the administration of justice, how communities are formed and governed. The role of Christians in the political process is hotly contested but as citizens Francis Beckwith argues Christians have a rich heritage of sophisticated thought as well as a genuine responsibility to contribute to the shaping of public policy. In particular Beckwith addresses the contention that Christians or indeed religious citizens of any faith should set aside their beliefs before they enter the public square. What role should religious citizens take in a liberal democracy? What is the proper separation of church and state? What place should be made for natural rights and the moral law within a secular state This cogent introduction to political thought surveys political science politics and government while making the case for how statecraft may genuinely contribute to soulcraft Politics for Christians is part of The Christian Worldview Integration Series
