Post-Colonial State in the Era of Capitalist Globalization Tariq Amin-Khan, 2012-03-12 State formation in post colonial societies differed greatly from the formation of the Western capitalist state The latter has been extensively studied while a coherent grasp of the post colonial state has remained elusive Amin Khan provides a critical historical and contemporary understanding of post colonial state formations in Asia and Africa and suggests how this process differed from the formation of states in Latin America In distinguishing between the post colonial state and the Western capitalist state the author argues that the unitary colonial state left a strong legacy on the decolonized states of Asia and Africa reinscribing their subordination vis vis Western states transnational corporations and multilateral institutions The indigenous elites decision at the time of decolonization to retain colonial state structures meant the readaptation of capitalism imperialism nexus to suit new post colonial realities which enabled the formation of clientelist relationships This post colonial reality and exploration of the contemporary context provides the basis of analyzing two post colonial state forms the capitalist and proto capitalist varieties which are examined using the case studies of India and Pakistan Democratic Transition and Security in Pakistan
