Small Town Everyday Things Of Children Community:

Small-Town America Robert Wuthnow, 2015-05-26 A revealing examination of small town life More than thirty million Americans live in small out of the way places Many of them could have joined the vast majority of Americans who live in cities and suburbs They could live closer to more lucrative careers and convenient shopping a wider range of educational opportunities and more robust health care But they have opted to live differently In Small Town America we meet factory workers shop owners retirees teachers clergy and mayors residents who show neighborliness in small ways but who also worry about everything from school closings and their children's futures to the ups and downs of the local economy Drawing on more than seven hundred in depth interviews in hundreds of towns across America and three decades of census data Robert Wuthnow shows the fragility of community in small towns He covers a host of topics including the symbols and rituals of small town life the roles of formal and informal leaders the social role of religious congregations the perception of moral and economic decline and the myriad ways residents in small towns make sense of their own lives Wuthnow also tackles difficult issues such as class and race abortion homosexuality and substance abuse Small Town America paints a rich panorama of individuals who reside in small communities finding that for many people living in a small town is an important part of self identity

A Census Report of Orphaned and Vulnerable Children in Two South African Communities Sean Jooste, Azwifaneli Managa, Leickness Chisamu Simbayi, 2006 In 2002 the Human Sciences Research Council was commissioned by the WK Kellogg Foundation to develop and implement a five year intervention project focusing on orphans and vulnerable children OVC in southern Africa In collaboration with several partner organisations the project currently focuses on how children families and communities in Botswana South Africa and Zimbabwe are coping with the impact of HIV AIDS The aim of the project is to develop models of best practise so as to enhance and improve support structures for OVC in the southern African region as a whole This report forms part of a series that examines the work undertaken as part of the Kellogg OVC Intervention Project from 2002 to 2005
