Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1977 The Call of God Reverend Wallace Chappell,2011-03-28 Wally Chappell has been preaching since his first appointment as Pastor in 1947 while a student in seminary He was always known as an interesting challenging preacher who held the interest of his congregation Many across the years encouraged him to put some sermons in print He first tried his hand at retirement at 69 but became employed in community relations work for a local mortgage company for five and half years and then came back to full time church work as a retired associate for pastoral care at First United Methodist Church of Dallas where he remained on staff until 87 years of age He finally got retirement right Yes he said I was wobbly and fearful Id spill communion wine on someone Friends continued to encourage him to publish and this book is the result It is mostly sermons with a eulogy a devotional and a couple of stories tossed in All were delivered at First Methodist Church of Dallas some in Sunday school classes retreats and studies His engineer background shows in a practical matter of fact approach to spiritual matters He is known as a clear thinker and a passionate advocate of the Christian Way He writes for speech not the written page and it shows in his syntax He said I guess I preach everything I read sort of trying on the words for oral delivery And it shows in reading the text He is a Biblical preacher almost always seeking to develop some passage of scripture The reader will find these messages thought provoking challenging and clear It may help to know there were other Wallace Chappells in the Methodist ministry This is the Texan by birth rearing and service who sees himself a citizen of the world and a lover of mountains Living In-Between Andre Resner,2015-11-04 The community of faith finds itself located precariously between Jesus first and second comings between the promise and fulfillment between what God has begun in the gospel and what God has yet to complete It thus finds itself proclaiming a gospel of life love hope and faith in a world more characterized by death hate despair and fear The gospel insists that Jesus death has shut the door on the age of violence and death even as his resurrection has opened the door on the Age of Shalom and life But in this tense in between time those conflicting ages overlap and the church struggles against powers and experiences that mock its message Drawing on resources from the New Testament s vision of the apocalyptic gospel Andre Resner urges the church and its preachers to engage in the linguistic practices of lament and proclamation as well as the embodied practices of justice making and justice keeping as counter testimony to those powers that have been served notice in Jesus life death and resurrection that their end is near The reflections offered here model the kind of honest speech and risk of life to which the gospel calls its adherents Resources for Preaching and Worship-Year A Hannah Ward,Jennifer Wild,2004-01-01 This
