Social Gerontology with Research Navigator Nancy R. Hooyman, 2005 Research Navigator Guide for Social Gerontology Nancy R. Hooyman, H. Asuman Kiyak, 2005 Social Gerontology Nancy R. Hooyman, H. Asuman Kiyak, 2007-07 This best selling multidisciplinary social aging text presents positive images of aging while considering the many factors that contribute to how aging individuals experience life. Up to date and expanded this text offers a comprehensive view that presents aging positively portraying concepts of active aging and resiliency and defining productive aging by elaborating on the numerous ways elders contribute to society and their families. Based on the latest research findings it offers greater depth to critical issues of aging attending to differences by age and cohort, gender, ethnic minority status, sexual orientation and socio-economic status. Social Gerontology Nancy R. Hooyman, H. Asuman Kiyak, 2005 Appropriate for sociology, psychology and nursing students this textbook examines the biological and physiological changes that affect older people's daily functioning, their risk of chronic diseases, the psychological changes that can occur and the social implications of aging. Neuropsychology of Everyday Functioning Thomas D. Marcotte, Maureen Schmitter-Edgecombe, Igor Grant, 2022-01-18 The go-to resource for assessing and predicting functional abilities in persons with brain injury or cognitive decline has now been revised and expanded to reflect significant advances in the field. With a focus on key real-world capacities: independent living, vocational functioning, medication management and driving, leading experts explore how individuals go about their daily lives where and why disruptions occur and potential opportunities for improving function. Strategies for direct assessment are reviewed from standard neuropsychological tests to multimodal approaches and technology-based tools. Chapters also provide functional assessment guidance for specific neurological and psychiatric conditions: dementia, traumatic brain injury, depression, schizophrenia and others. New to This Edition: Incorporates over a decade of technological and methodological innovations. Chapter on theories and models of everyday functioning. Chapters on naturalistic assessment, wearable sensors, ambulatory assessment and virtual reality-based tools. Practical clinical implications are highlighted throughout. Social Gerontology Nancy R. Hooyman, H.
