Social Problems In Africa New Visions:

Social Problems in Africa Apollo Rwomire, 2001-07-30 Despite the recent growth of research on social problems facing the people of sub Saharan Africa there remains a critical lack of conceptual epistemological and empirical research and documentation This sophisticated new book attempts to fill that gap by synthesizing interpreting and extending the existing literature on conditions that constitute serious impediments to socio economic development in Africa It provides an original and up to date survey of key problems ranging from poverty and inequality to violence and crime The contributors all of whom have lived or worked in Africa show how social problems emerge how they are defined and how various actors attempt to deal with them This timely book provides a much needed analysis of the major issues and debates regarding the dynamics of social problems in the African context Social Problems in Africa is broken into four parts The first introduces readers to the nature of social problems in general and provides a framework for analyzing and understanding social problems in an African context Part II on culture human rights and democracy examines these crucial aspects of social problems in Africa as well as issues such as language and colonialism Part III focuses on poverty and inequality while conflict and violence is the focus of Part IV Together the chapters in this volume provide the most comprehensive and systematic approach to the issues available bringing much needed attention to the problems in Africa from the perspective of scholars who have lived and worked there

Pillars of the Nation Kristen E. Cheney, 2008-09-15 How can children simultaneously be the most important and least powerful people in a nation In her innovative ethnography of Ugandan children the pillars of tomorrow s Uganda according to the national youth anthem Kristen E Cheney answers this question by exploring the daily contradictions children face as they try to find their places amid the country s rapidly changing social conditions Drawing on the detailed life histories of several children Cheney shows that children and childhood are being redefined by the desires of a young country struggling to position itself in the international community She moves between urban schools music festivals and war zones to reveal how Ugandans are constructing childhood as an empowering identity for the development of the nation Moreover through her analysis of children s rights ideology national government strategy and children s everyday concerns Cheney also shows how these young citizens are vitally linked to the global political economy as they navigate the pitfalls and possibilities for a brighter tomorrow

Every Household Its Own Government Daniel Jordan Smith, 2022-03-08 An up close account of how Nigerians self reliance in the absence of reliable government services enables official dysfunction to strengthen state power When Nigerians say that every household is its own local government what they mean is that the politicians and state institutions of Africa's richest most populous country cannot be trusted to ensure even the most basic infrastructure needs of their people Daniel Jordan Smith traces how innovative entrepreneurs and ordinary citizens in Nigeria have forged their own systems in response to these deficiencies devising creative solutions in the daily struggle to survive Drawing on his three decades of experience in Nigeria Smith examines the many ways Nigerians across multiple social strata develop technologies businesses social networks political strategies cultural repertoires and everyday routines to cope with the constant failure of government infrastructure He describes how Nigerians provide for basic needs like water electricity transportation security communication and education and how their inventiveness comes with consequences On the surface it may appear that their self reliance and sheer hustle render the state irrelevant In reality the state is not so much absent as complicit Smith shows how private efforts to address infrastructural shortcomings require regular engagement with government officials shaping the experience of citizenship and strengthening state power Every Household Its Own Government reveals how these dealings have contributed to forms and practices of governance that thrive on official dysfunction and perpetuate the very inequalities and injustices that afflict struggling Nigerians The Routledge Handbook of Postcolonial Social Work Tanja Kleibl, Ronald Lutz, Ndangwa Noyoo, Benjamin Bunk, Annika Dittmann, Boitumelo Seepamore, 2019-07-30 The Routledge Handbook of Postcolonial Social Work reflects on and dissects the challenging issues confronting social work practice and education globally in the post colonial era By analysing how countries in the so called developing and developed world have navigated some of the inherited systems from the colonial era it shows how they have used them to provide relevant social work methods which are also responsive to the needs of a postcolonial setting This is an analytical and reflexive handbook that brings together different scholars from various parts of the world both North and South so as to distill ideas from scholars relating to ways that can advance social work of the South and critique social work of the North in so far as it is used as a template for social work approaches in postcolonial settings It determines whether and how approaches knowledge bases and methods of social work have been indigenised and localised in the Global South in the postcolonial era This handbook provides the reader with multiple new theoretical approaches and empirical experiences and creates a space of action for the most marginalised communities worldwide It will be of interest to researchers and practitioners as well as those in social work education

Neo-Medievalism and Civil Wars Neil Winn, 2004-02-26 Since 1989 the concept of civil war has taken on new salience in international relations Significant inquiries into inter ethnic violence emphasising studies of political community identity sovereignty and political organisation have dominated the study of civil war in the past decade Processes of social denationalisation of national identity New Vision 2050 Hiroshi Komiyama, Koichi Yamada, 2018-05-04 This book presents the New Vision 2050 which adds the concept of the platinum society to the Vision 2050 The 20th century was a century in which energy led the development of material civilization resulting in depletion of resources global warming and climate change What form should sustainable material and energy take to protect the Earth The Vision 2050 was established 20 years ago as a model that we should pursue for the next half century Fortunately the world is on course for the Vision 2050 The 21st century will be a century in which we seek qualitative richness with the Vision 2050 as the material basis That is a platinum society that has resource self sufficiency and resource symbiosis and where people remain active throughout their lives and have a wide range of choices and opportunities for free participation Since the author presented the concept of Vision 2050 in 1999 the idea has been introduced in two books entitled Vision 2050 Roadmap for a Sustainable Earth 2008 and Beyond the Limits to Growth New Ideas for Sustainability from Japan 2014 The latter includes a chapter that sheds light on the concept of a platinum society In this publication the author presents the New Vision 2050 in more detail

most of these efforts have not progressed beyond simple elections The contributors to this volume provide strategies that Africans can use to deepen democracy improve resource allocation and enhance their ability to coexist peacefully Mbaku Ihonvbere and their contributors while adopting a critical approach to the study of African political economy take a stand against Afro pessimism They articulate an holistic agenda for addressing Africa s multifarious problems reject received knowledge and through a dialectical methodology draw attention to the centrality of social categories classes the state civil society the environment communities and patterns of change in the continent Relying on fieldwork hard data and critical reviews of the extant literature the volume highlights the importance of democracy and democratization to the urgent restructuring that Africa needs in the new globalization Paying attention to the continent s historical experiences and its specificities the contributors draw attention to the importance of grassroots action leadership and the need to constitutionally entrench civil liberties
