music charting his private thoughts and feelings through letters diaries sketchbooks and the conversation books he used as his hearing declined She gives us Beethoven as a battered four year old weeping at the clavier the young virtuoso pianist agonized by his encroaching deafness the passionate heartbroken lover the clumsy eccentric making coffee with exactly sixty beans Padel's quest takes her into the heart of Europe and back to her own musical childhood Her great grandfather who studied in Leipzig with a pupil of Beethoven's became a concert pianist before migrating to Britain her parents met making music and Padel grew up playing the viola Beethoven's instrument as a child Her book is a poet and string player's intimate connection across the centuries with an artist who though increasingly isolated ended even his most harrowing works on a note of hope
