Africa, Empire and Fleet Street Jonathan Derrick,2018-03-15 For decades before and after African independence the London weekly West Africa was a well known source of news analysis and comment on the region especially the former British territories Jonathan Derrick who worked on the magazine s staff in the 1960s and again in its final years before closure in 2003 here studies the earlier history of West Africa through the story of its largely forgotten editor Albert Cartwright from the magazine s founding in 1917 to Cartwright s retirement in 1947 Before editing West Africa Cartwright spent twenty years in South Africa making the headlines in 1901 when as editor of Cape Town s South African News during the Boer War he was jailed for a year for a war crimes allegation against Lord Kitchener Exploring Cartwright family papers and memories Derrick reveals the complex nature of a man who for three decades ran a colonial magazine but was appreciated by Africans as someone who genuinely understood them Derrick places the story of colonial era West Africa which would reach its greatest heights during the independence period within the wider landscape of British periodicals dealing with Africa in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Postcolonial Contraventions Laura Chrisman,2003 This book provides unique insider critical insights into the ever growing field of Postcolonial Studies from one of the field s original architects Vanderbilt Journal of Transnational Law ,1989 Biography Index Bea Joseph,1986 A cumulative index to biographical material in books and magazines American Book Publishing Record ,1984-09 Sol Plaatje, South African Nationalist, 1876-1932 Brian Willan,1984 The African Book Publishing Record ,1999 Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,1986 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1993 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2002 South African National Bibliography ,1990 Includes publications received in terms of Copyright Act no 9 of 1916 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1987 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world s leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science
