Stranger in Havana Robert B. Abel, 2004-06-01 The Buoy is a psycho dramatic novel with spiritual overtones written to take the reader out of his day to day existence into a dimension that lies between life and death This is a place of quasi existence where one is forced to observe but inhibited from interfering in the affairs of those into whose company he is thrust There he must watch helplessly while disastrous events unfold through an encounter with a castaway fisherman s buoy with bizarre properties This buoy traps a scientist in a strange psycho physical vortex that sweeps him out to sea There the scientist relives the events that brought the buoy to the shores of America in the first place The drama unfolds over a hundred years and involves two ships a nineteenth century sailing vessel and a modern sophisticated diesel powered vessel engaged in oceanographic research
