The Islamic Law Of Personal Status Third Edition Arab And Islamic Laws Series Volume 23:

The Islamic Law of Personal Status Jamal J. Nasir, 2021-10-05 This new edition of the authoritative English language treatment of Islamic personal status law gives practitioners and courts throughout the world direct access to this important body of law in its most up to date development All Middle Eastern and North African Arab states are covered new to this edition is coverage of recent provisions enacted in Kuwait Yemen and Sudan The chapter on dissolution of marriage has been completely revised to reflect current legal interpretation and judicial practice in this rapidly changing area of Islamic law Also new and especially valuable are English versions for the first time anywhere of fundamental Shiite and Jaafari legal works with the most thorough analysis and commentary available in any non Arabic source Dr Nasir's much appreciated methodology has been continued since the very successful first edition of 1986 For each topic e.g. marriage dower dissolution of marriage parentage inheritance and waqf he begins with a consideration of the subject in Sharia law and then goes on to present legislation and contemporary views in particular Arab countries This approach while it clearly manifests the continuity of Islamic law respecting personal status is of great practical value to judges and practitioners especially those who must resolve disputes under Islamic law in non Muslim countries

Arbitral Awards of the Cairo Regional Centre for International Commercial Arbitration - Arbitral Awards of CRCICA Volume 2 (1997-2000) Mohiedin Ismail Alamedin, 2021-10-25 The cases are edited and translated by the prominent legal scholar arbitrator and lawyer Dr Mohie Eldin I Alam Eldin His in depth commentary on the thirty four cases included in this volume encompasses discussion of emerging new arbitral trends and principles such as the alter ego and contra preferentum doctrines and new approaches to arbitration engendered by the ever growing and changing practises and patterns of international trade He also analyses many of the new issues raised by the decisions of the court of appeal in cases where arbitral awards proved unsatisfactory Many of these court of appeal decisions are included in the text as are relevant decisions of the Supreme Court of Egypt This second series of cases brought before the Cairo Regional Centre for International Commercial Arbitration covers the period 1997-2002 years which witnessed a major growth in confidence in the Centre and a corresponding expansion in scope procedure and legal principles Perhaps most notable among these important developments is the evolution of hybrid procedures that permit the harmonization of legal cultures among parties In this book will be found a number of cases which successfully blend common law civil law and Sharia principles while rigorously adhering to the agreements between the parties all applicable law and guarantees of defence The subject matter of the international disputes arbitrated includes the following Supply Hotel management Software contracts Oil contracts Distributorship contracts Insurance contracts Credit risk management contracts Construction Commercial agency The significance of the Cairo Regional Centre for International Commercial Arbitration as a forward looking and innovative institution directly influencing business activity in some of the most important areas of global commerce can hardly be overstated This book validates and reinforces the Centre's pivotal role and will be of inestimable value to the international commercial arbitration community Family Law and Gender in the Middle East and North Africa Adrien K. Wing, Hisham A. Kassim, 2023-06-01 The volume serves as reference point for anyone interested in the Middle East and North Africa as well as for those interested in women's rights and family law generally or in the MENA region It is the only book covering personal status codes of nearly a dozen countries It covers Muslim family law in the following Middle East north African countries Tunisia Egypt Morocco Algeria Iraq Lebanon Jordan Israel Palestine and Qatar Some of these countries were heavily affected by the Arab Spring and some were not With authors from around the world each chapter of the book provides a history of personal status law both before and after the revolutionary period Tunisia emerges as the country that made the most significant progress politically and with respect to women's rights A decade on from the Arab Spring across the region there is more evidence of stasis than change Feminist Activism, Women's Rights, and Legal Reform Mulki Al-Sharmani, 2013-12-12 This ground breaking collection investigates the relationship between feminist activism and legal reform as a pathway to gender justice and social change Since the advent of feminist movements legal reform has been a popular and yet contentious vehicle for seeking women's rights and empowerment This important book looks at comparative insights drawn from field based research on the processes the challenges and the outcomes of legal reform and feminist activism Feminist Activism Women's Rights and Legal Reform brings together cases from Middle East Latin America and Asia of the successes and failures of reform efforts concerning the promulgation and implementation of new family laws and domestic violence codes Issues in Islamic Law Mashood A. Baderin, 2017-07-05 Islamic substantive law otherwise called branches of the law furu al fiqh covers the textual provisions and jurisprudential rulings relating to specific transactions under Islamic law It is to Islamic substantive law that the rules of Islamic legal theory are applied The relationship between Islamic legal theory and Islamic substantive law is metaphorically described by Islamic jurists as a process of cultivation istithmar whereby the qualified jurist mujtahid as the cultivator uses relevant rules of legal theory to harvest the substantive law on specific issues in form of fruits thamarat from the sources The articles in this volume engage critically with selected substantive issues in Islamic law including family law law of inheritance law of financial transactions criminal law judicial procedure and international law al siyar These areas of substantive law have been selected due to their contemporary relevance and application in different parts of the Muslim world today The volume features an introductory overview of the subject as well as a comprehensive bibliography to aid further research

Religions and Constitutional Transitions in the Muslim Mediterranean Alessandro Ferrari, James

Toronto, 2016-09-13 This book investigates the role of Islam and religious freedom in the constitutional transitions of six North African and Middle Eastern countries namely Morocco Algeria Tunisia Egypt Turkey and Palestine In particular the book with an interdisciplinary approach investigates the role of Islam as a political institutional and societal force Issues covered include the role played by Islam as a constitutional reference a static force able to strengthen and legitimize the entire constitutional order Islam as a political reference used by some political parties in their struggle to acquire political power and Islam as a specific religion that like other religions in the area embodies diverse perspectives on the nature and role of religious freedom in society The volume provides insight about the political dimension of Islam as used by political forces as well as the religious dimension of Islam This provides a new and wider perspective able to take into account the increasing social pluralism of the South Mediterranean region By analyzing three different topics Islam and constitutionalism religious political parties and religious freedom the book offers a dynamic picture of the role played by Islam and religious freedom in the process of state building in a globalized age in which human rights and pluralism are crucial dimensions
