The Japanese Discovery Of Europe 1720 183

Alistair D. Swale

The Japanese Discovery Of Europe 1720 183:

The Japanese Discovery of Europe, 1720-1830 Donald Keene, 1969-06-01 This is an account of the growth and uses of Western learning in Japan from 1720 to 1830 These are the dates of the beginning of official interest in Western learning and of the expulsion of Siebold from the country the first stage of a crisis that could be resolved only by the opening of the country of the West The century and more included by the two dates was a most important period in Japanese history when intellectuals rebelling at the isolation of their country desperately sought knowledge from abroad The amazing energy and enthusiasm of men like Honda Toshiaki made possible the spectacular changes in Japan which are all too often credited to the arrival of Commodore Perry The author chose Honda Toshiaki 1744 1821 as his central figure A page from any one of Honda s writings suffices to show that with him one has entered a new age that of modern Japan One finds in his books a new spirit restless curious and receptive There is in him the wonder at new discoveries the delight in widening horizons Honda took a kind of pleasure even in revealing that Japan after all was only a small island in a large world To the Japanese who had thought of Chinese civilization as being immemorial antiquity he declared that Egypt s was thousands of years older and far superior The world he discovered was full of wonderful things and he insisted that Japan take advantage of them Honda looked at Japan as he thought a Westerner might and saw things that had to be changed terrible drains on the country s moral and physical strength Within him sprang the conviction that Japan must become one of the great nations of the world

The Japanese Discovery of Europe, 1720-1830 Donald Keene, 1981 Imagining Japan Robert N. Bellah, 2003-02-26 One of the most influential sociologists living today Robert N Bellah began his career as a Japan specialist and has continued to contribute to the field over the past thirty years Imagining Japan is a collection of some of his most important writings including essays that consider the entire sweep of Japanese history and the character of Japanese society and religion Combining intellectual rigor broad scholarship and ethical commitment this book also features a new and extensive introduction that brings together intellectual and institutional dimensions of Japanese history The Meiji Restoration

Alistair D. Swale, 2009-11-04 The Meiji Restoration of 1868 is one of the most astonishing political events of the modern era yet it doesn t fit easily with Western precedents of mass mobilization and social transformation This book challenges some of the preconceptions that have hindered the Restoration being understood on its own terms Catalog of Copyright Entries.

Willem A. Veenhoven, 2024-09-09 Conduct Under Fire John A. Glusman, 2006-04-25 The fierce bloody battles of Bataan and Corregidor in the Philippines are legendary in the annals of World War II Those who survived faced the horrors of life as prisoners of the Japanese In Conduct Under Fire John A Glusman chronicles these events through the eyes of his father Murray and three fellow navy doctors captured on Corregidor in May 1942 Here are the dramatic stories of the fall of Bataan the siege of the Rock and the daily struggles to tend the sick wounded and dying during some of the heaviest bombardments of World War II Here also is the desperate war doctors and corpsmen waged against disease and starvation amid an enemy that viewed surrender as a disgrace To survive the POWs functioned as a family But the ties that bind couldn't protect them from a ruthless counteroffensive waged by American submarines or from the B 29 raids that burned Japan's major cities to the ground Based on extensive interviews with American British Australian and Japanese veterans as well as diaries letters and war crimes testimony this is a harrowing account of a brutal clash of cultures of a race war that escalated into total war Like Flags of Our Fathers and Ghost Soldiers Conduct Under Fire is a story of bravery on the battlefield and ingenuity behind barbed wire one that reveals the long shadow the war cast on the lives of those who fought it An Empire in Eclipse John Welfield, 2013-12-17 In this major account of Japan's relationship with America since the Second World War the author breaks new ground in linking Japan's foreign policy with the arena of domestic politics The changing balance between a pro American and anti American groups was a decisive factor and Professor Welfield provides a lucid analysis of this complex scene First published in 1988 this title is part of the Bloomsbury Academic Collections series Strange Parallels: Volume 2, Mainland Mirrors: Europe, Japan, China, South Asia, and the Islands Victor Lieberman, 2009-10-30 Blending fine grained case studies with overarching theory this book seeks both to integrate Southeast Asia into world history and to rethink much of Eurasia's premodern past It argues that Southeast Asia Europe Japan China and South Asia all embodied idiosyncratic versions of a Eurasian wide pattern whereby local isolates cohered to form ever larger more stable more complex political and cultural systems With accelerating force climatic commercial and military stimuli joined to produce patterns of linear cum cyclic construction that became remarkably synchronized even between regions that had no contact with one another Yet this study also distinguishes between two zones of integration one where indigenous groups remained in control and a second where agency gravitated to external conquest elites Here then is a fundamentally original view of Eurasia during a 1 000 year period that speaks to both historians of individual regions and those interested in global trends Mapping Empires: Colonial Cartographies of Land and Sea Alexander James Kent, Soetkin Vervust, Imre Josef Demhardt, Nick Millea, 2019-08-26 This book comprises 17 chapters derived from new research papers presented at the 7th International Symposium of the ICA Commission on the History of Cartography held in Oxford from 13 to 15 September 2018 and jointly organized by the ICA Commission on Topographic Mapping and the Bodleian Libraries University of Oxford The overall conference theme was Mapping Empires Colonial Cartographies of Land and Sea The book presents a breadth of original research undertaken by internationally recognized authors in the field of historical cartography and offers a significant contribution to the development of this growing field and to many interdisciplinary aspects of geography history and the geographic information sciences It is intended for researchers teachers postgraduate students map librarians and archivists
