The Islamic Movement Syed Abul 'Ala Maudoodi, 1984 Translation of Ta hr ik i Isl am i k i a _k _hl aq i buny ade _n The Islamic Movement Abu al-'Ala al-Maududi, 1984 Islamic Movement Dynamics of Values, Power and Change Sayyid

Abul A'la Mawdudi, 1984 Islamic Da'wah in the West Larry Poston, 1992 An examination of Islamic evangelism or da wah as it has been interpreted and practiced by Muslims in the West Beginning with a history of Islamic expansionism the author traces the concept of da wah from the earliest followers of Islam to new missionary strategies in North America

World Culture, EPZ Edition Frank J. Lechner, John Boli, 2008-04-15 This book explores the development content and impact of world culture Combining several of the most fruitful theoretical perspectives on world culture including the world polity approach and globalization theory the book gives a historical treatment of the development of world culture and assesses the complex impact of world culture on people organizations and societies This is a provocative synthetic and grounded interpretation of world culture that is essential for any student or scholar of globalization and world affairs Traces world culture back from the mid 19th century to the present day Includes numerous illustrations of key issues and empirical research Written in lively accessible language for the student and general scholar Was Jesus a Muslim? Robert F.

Shedinger, An intriguing question Do Muslims understand Jesus in some ways more historically appropriate than Christians do leads Robert F Shedinger into a series of provocative challenges to the disciplines of religious studies and comparative religions Questioning the convenient distinction between politics and religion and the isolation of religion from wider social and cultural questions Shedinger offers a proposal for a more accurate and respectful understanding of faith that he argues will improve possibilities for mutual understanding among Christians Muslims and others The Resurgence of Religion

David S. Zeidan, 2018-11-13 This book is a comparative study of basic themes in Christian and Islamic fundamentalist discourses analyzing and comparing texts from a wide variety of fundamentalist leaders and movements looking for family resemblances and significant differences in order to better understand the contemporary phenomenon of religious resurgence After placing fundamentalisms in a theoretical framework the study looks at selected themes important to fundamentalists noting resemblances and differences These themes include their anti secularist stance their theocentric worldviews their reliance on inerrant sacred scriptures and their attitudes to politics government state and democracy The study also looks at the fundamentalist view of the world as a perennial battlefield between the forces of good and those of evil in the realm of ideologies as well as politics and the legitimation of violence In The Early Hours Khurram

Murad, 2013-09-15 How are we to become true believers who seek God s good pleasure How are we to become mindful of God to be thankful or worshipful How are we to control our anger and pride How are we to follow the example of the Prophet Muhammad peace be upon him This inspirational book of wise advice answers these questions and guides us toward the spiritual life Khurram Murad 1932 1996 was the director general of The Islamic Foundation United Kingdom and a renowned teacher who spent 40 years in the spiritual teaching and training of thousands of young Muslim people around the globe He has published more than 20 works in English and Urdu

The OIC, the UN, and Counter-Terrorism Law-Making Katja Samuel, 2014-07-18 The increasingly transnational nature of terrorist activities compels the international community to strengthen the legal framework in which counter terrorism activities should occur at every level including that of intergovernmental organizations This unique timely and carefully researched monograph examines one such important yet generally under researched and poorly understood intergovernmental organization the Organization of Islamic Cooperation OIC formerly the Organization of the Islamic Conference In particular it analyses in depth its institutional counter terrorism law making practice and the relationship between resultant OIC law and comparable UN norms in furtherance of UN Global Counter Terrorism Strategy goals Furthermore it explores two common mis assumptions regarding the OIC namely whether its internal institutional weaknesses mean that its law making practice is inconsequential at the intergovernmental level and whether its self declared Islamic objectives and nature are irrelevant to its institutional practice or are instead reflected within OIC law Where significant normative tensions are discerned between OIC law and UN law the monograph explores not only whether these may be explicable at least in part by the OIC s Islamic nature and objectives but also whether their corresponding institutional legal orders are conflicting or cooperative in nature and the resultant implications of these findings for international counter terrorism law and policy making This monograph is expected to appeal especially to national and intergovernmental counter terrorism practitioners and policy makers as well as to scholars concerned with the interaction between international and Islamic law norms From the Foreword by Professor Ben Saul The University of Sydney Dr Samuels book must be commended as an original and insightful contribution to international legal scholarship on the OIC Islamic law international law and counter terrorism It fills significant gaps in legal knowledge about the vast investment of international and regional effort that has gone into the global counter terrorism enterprise over many decades and which accelerated markedly after 9 11 The scope of the book is ambitious its subject matter is complex and its sources are many and diverse Dr Samuel has deployed an appropriate theoretical and empirical methodology harnessed an intricate knowledge of the field and brought a balanced judgement to bear to bring these issues to life

International Law in a Multipolar World Matthew Hoppold, 2013-03 This book explores the implications of a multipolar world for the development of international law including contributions from Nigel White Alexander Orakhelashvili and Christian Pippin The contributions explore issues including the use of force governance regionalism and the relevance of the UN considering the relationship between power and law
