OLANDER, Patricia WARRICK, 1974 Science Fiction and the Dismal Science Gary Westfahl, Gregory Benford, Howard V. Hendrix, 2019-11-27 Despite the growing importance of economics in our lives literary scholars have long been reluctant to consider economic issues as they examine key texts This volume seeks to fill one of these conspicuous gaps in the critical literature by focusing on various connections between science fiction and economics with some attention to related fields such as politics and government Its seventeen contributors include five award winning scholars five science fiction writers and a widely published economist Three topics are covered what noted science fiction writers like Robert A Heinlein Frank Herbert and Kim Stanley Robinson have had to say about our economic and political future how the competitive and ever changing publishing marketplace has affected the growth and development of science fiction from the nineteenth century to today and how the scholars who examine science fiction have themselves been influenced by the economics of academia Although the essays focus primarily on American science fiction the traditions of Russian and Chinese science fiction are also examined A comprehensive bibliography of works related to science fiction and economics will assist other readers and critics who are interested in this subject Science Fiction and Speculative Fiction P. Capital in the Mirror Dan Krier, Mark P. Worrell, 2020-04-01 Aesthetic objects crafted as poetic reflections of the contradictory worlds that they inhabit are simultaneously theorized and theorizing In Capital in the Mirror eminent critical theorists explore the aesthetic dimension for reflective visions of capital that are difficult to obtain through even the most rigorous statistical analyses Chapters address inequality alienation ideology warfare and other problems of contemporary capitalism through the cultural prisms of Herman Melville Thomas Mann Charles Dickens J W Goethe Friedrich Hlderlin Walt Whitman Bertolt Brecht and science fiction cinema Famous narrative elements in their works such as Ahab s pursuit of the white whale in Melville s Moby Dick demonic production and perverse desire in Mann s Doctor Faustus socially electrified bodies of Whitman's Leaves of Grass and dystopian projections of current sci fi cinema are theorized as stylistically distorted reflections of social life within capital. The authors reveal theoretical powers latent within these condensed images that prefigure the dark dynamics of capitalism. Focusing on dark images of domination and also prophetic images of transformation, the book points the way toward emancipation, social regeneration and human flourishing.

Sociological Re-Imaginations in & of Universities Mohammad H. Tamdgidi, 2009-06-01 This Summer 2009 VII 3 issue of Human Architecture Journal of the Sociology of Self Knowledge is devoted to the theme Sociological Re-Imaginations in & of Universities. As part of the journal's continuing series critically engaging with C Wright Mills' sociological imagination, i.e. the proposition that the best way to theorize and practice sociology is via a continual conversation between the study of one's personal troubles and that of broader public issues, the present issue turns its attention to fostering sociological re-imaginings in and of universities. Several faculty, recent graduates or alumni, and current undergraduate students advance insightful critical perspectives about their own learning and teaching experiences and personal troubles and broader university disciplinary and administrative public issues that in their view merit immediate attention in favor of fundamental rectifications of outdated procedures and educational habits that continue to persist at the cost of more creative and in fact more scientific and rational approaches to production and dissemination of knowledge.
