Softbills Care Breeding And Conservation:

Softbills Martin Vince,1996 The author offers an exhaustive volume about the biology and ecology of softbills small flying birds that do not live on seeds but on soft foods such as fruits insects and meats Author Martin Vince offers an exhaustive volume about the biology and ecology of softbills small flying birds that do not live on seeds but on soft foods such as fruits insects and meats A practical and uniquely detailed book it is based on the author s experience during twenty years of keeping and breeding a large range of softbills The first section of text covers the basics from purchasing and housing to the particulars such as handling banding and nutrition The second section of the book focuses on the different species covering topics such as size sexing incubation and breeding Because all of the birds described have been kept by the author the information is especially relevant and helpful This thoroughly modern easy to use guide is sure to become the definitive source for softbill keepers

The Birds World Nicolae Sfetcu,2021-10-25 Birds are among the most extensively studied of all animal groups Hundreds of academic journals and thousands of scientists are devoted to bird research while amateur enthusiasts called birdwatchers or more commonly birders probably number in the millions Birds are categorised as a biological class Aves The earliest known species of this class is Archaeopteryx lithographica from the Late Jurassic period According to the most recent consensus Aves and a sister group the order Crocodilia together form a group of unnamed rank the Archosauria Phylogenetically Aves is usually defined as all descendants of the most recent common ancestor of modern birds or of a specific modern bird species like Passer domesticus and Archaeopteryx Modern phylogenies place birds in the dinosaur clade Theropoda Modern birds are divided into two superorders the Paleognathae mostly flightless birds like ostriches and the wildly diverse Neognathae containing all other birds
